ORDER

This cause comes before the Court for consideration of the Receiver's Twelfth Interim Motion for Order Awarding Fees, Costs and Reimbursement of Costs to Receiver and His Professionals (Doc. 648). The Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") does not oppose the granting of the relief sought. Defendants Anile and Haas do not oppose the motion, and the United States (as an intervening party) was not consulted because the government has not previously taken a position on the Receiver's fee applications, and its involvement in this case has concluded following DeCorta's recent trial. Although the Receiver's motion indicated that it was unknown whether Defendants Haas, Duran, and DaCorta oppose the motion, none of these parties have filed objections to the motion and the time for filing an objection has run.

Upon due consideration, the Receiver's Twelfth Interim Motion for Order Awarding Fees, Costs and Reimbursement of Costs to Receiver and His Professionals (Doc. 648) is GRANTED. The Court awards the following sums and directs that payment be made from the Receivership assets:

$27,986.11
$52,750.18
$2,997.00
$24,420.26
$1,325.95
$4,404.82
$10,397.50
$860.33
$5,737.50
