Garnishment proceedings are statutory in nature and must be strictly complied with. Zivitz v. Zivitz, 16 So. 3d 841, 847 (Fla. 2d DCA 2009). In this case, Defendant was timely served by first class mail with a copy of the Writ of Garnishment, Ex Parte Motion for Writ of Garnishment, and the "Notice to Defendant" because it was sent to Defendant's last known address within three (3) business days after the writ was served on Garnishee. See Fla. Stat. § 77.041(2). Debtor was also timely served with a copy of the Garnishee's Answer and notice regarding a motion to dissolve the Writ of Garnishment pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 77.055 because it was mailed and emailed to Defendant within five (5) days after the Garnishee filed its Answer.

Moreover, the Defendant waived her right to object to the Writ, file a claim of exemption form, or move to dissolve the Writ. Accordingly, entry of the proposed final judgment attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is appropriate in light of the Defendant's waivers.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court will enter a Final Judgment of Garnishment directing the Garnishee to release $41.20 of garnished funds to the Receiver and for any further relief this Honorable Court finds fair and just under the circumstances.

Local Rule 3.01(g) Certification

Pursuant to Local Rule 3.01(g), M.D. Fla., undersigned counsel certifies that he conferred with counsel for Garnishee, who opposes the relief sought herein pending receipt by him of the $100.00 statutory fee. A check was mailed to him on August 24th.
