Docket Text:

ORAL ORDER: Pursuant to the Receiver's representations to the Court at the August 17, 2020, status conference and in its Motion for Extension of Time and Status Conference (Doc. # [293]), the Court wishes to make the following facts plain to all parties. If no lawyer that is properly admitted to practice before this Court pursuant to the Court's rules makes a formal appearance on behalf of a party, the Court will consider that party to be representing themselves, or, in other words, proceeding pro se. Even pro se parties are expected to abide by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's Local Rules, and all other applicable rules and regulations. This includes a duty to confer when necessary with the opposing party. To facilitate such communications, the Court directs all parties proceeding pro se to contact counsel for the Receiver and provide a mailing address, email address, and telephone number at which they can be reached. The Court will also enter by separate order an order informing the pro se parties of their rights and obligations and the Clerk is directed to forward, on an ongoing basis, a copy of this Order to all pro se parties as they appear in this action.
