Case Name: Wiand v. Arduini et al
Case Number: 8:20-cv-00862-VMC-TGW
Filer:
Document Number: 522(No document attached)

Docket Text:

ENDORSED ORDER: Defendant Jerry Puccio's son sent an email on behalf of Mr. Puccio directly to the Court, rather than filing a pleading with the Clerk of the Court. The Court takes this opportunity to inform Mr. Puccio and all other parties that they are not permitted to communicate directly with the Court. Doing so is a violation of the Local Rules and, thus, all parties are directed to not communicate directly with the Court this way in the future. Second, unless a person is a lawyer admitted to practice in the Middle District of Florida, that person cannot act on behalf of a party. See Local Rule 2.01(a) ("No person shall be permitted to appear or be heard as counsel for another in any proceeding in this Court unless first admitted to practice in the Court pursuant to this rule (or heretofore admitted under prior rules of the Court)"). The Court understands a child's desire to help a parent. But, this is a Court proceeding and sending a submission on behalf of someone else qualifies as acting as their representative. By sending an email to the Court on Mr. Puccio's behalf, Mr. Puccio's son failed to follow the Local Rules, with all of the ramifications that entails. He should not do that again as it would jeopardize the proceedings. Nevertheless, the Court will treat the affidavit and letter filed on behalf of Mr. Puccio as a motion to set aside the entry of default. The Court also treats it as a motion for extension of time to file an answer if the motion to set aside default is granted. The receiver is directed to respond to the construed motion by
