I. INTRODUCTION

From November 2011 through April 2019, Joseph S. Anile, II (“Anile”) and Michael J. DaCorta (“DaCorta”) (collectively “Insiders”) operated the Oasis Entities as a classic Ponzi scheme premised on selling limited partnership interests to investors or borrowing funds from investors to invest in the foreign exchange market. In furtherance of the Ponzi scheme, the Oasis Entities raised approximately $84 million from at least nine hundred fifty (950) investors. The Receiver brought this action against ninety five (95) investors in the scheme—including the Remaining Defendants—who received more money back from the Oasis Entities than invested and thus were inequitably advantaged at the expense of hundreds of investors who collectively lost at least $54 million. The Receiver seeks to recover funds that the Remaining Defendants received from the scheme that exceeded the amount they invested in the Oasis Entities (“False Profits”) and prejudgment interest.

II. STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

1. Anile operated the Oasis Entities as a Ponzi scheme from November of 2011 to April of 2019 and during that time the Oasis Entities were insolvent. (Davis Decl. ¶ 23; Doc. 1-5).

2. The Oasis Entities’ Ponzi scheme was premised on selling limited partnership interests to investors or borrowing funds from investors to invest in the foreign exchange market (the “Scheme”). (Davis Decl. ¶ 17; Doc. 1-5).

3. Investors in the Scheme were told that the Oasis Entities did not lose money in the foreign exchange trading activity and that the Oasis Entities earned 22% returns in 2017, 22% in 2018, and that funds were only used to trade in the foreign exchange market (“Forex”). (Davis Decl. ¶ 17; Doc. 1-5).

4. From November 2011 to April 2019, the Oasis Entities had incoming funds of $88,224,322, of which $83,795,457 (95%) were from investors, $1,942,750 (2%) were from insiders and related parties, $823,661 (1%) was from employees and traders, and $757,669 (1%) was from other parties. Less than 1%, or $60,000, of funds received by the Oasis Entities related to trading activity. (Davis Decl. ¶ 19).

5. Only $22.4 million (27%) of the Oasis Entities' investor funds were used in Forex trading activity and that trading activity resulted in losses over $16 million or 78% of the original amount invested in its Forex trading accounts. (Davis Decl. ¶¶ 21, 22).

6. The Oasis Entities did not generate sufficient profits to pay the promised returns to investors and of the $83.8 million collected from investors, $30.4 million was paid to investors—a net investor loss of at least $53.4 million. (Davis Decl. ¶ 21, 22).

7. On May 22, 2012, Defendant Wilkerson paid $1,000.00 to the Oasis Entities and between May 29, 2012 and June 18, 2018, Defendant Wilkerson received payments from the Oasis Entities totaling $16,631.78. (Davis Decl. ¶ 24, Exh. D; Wiand Decl. ¶ 5, 6 & Comp. Exh. 3).

8. Between May 25, 2012 and January 4, 2013, Defendant Attia made payments to the Oasis Entities totaling $92,020.00 and between March 1, 2013 and January 16, 2015, Defendant Attia received payments from the Oasis Entities totaling $106,267.29. (Davis Decl. ¶ 24, Exh. D; Wiand Decl. ¶ 5, 6 & Comp. Exh. 3).

9. Between July 16, 2013 and September 26, 2016, Defendant Martini Jr. received payments from the Oasis Entities totaling $200,000.00 and made no direct transfer of money to the Oasis Entities. (Davis Decl. ¶ 24, Exh. D; Wiand Decl. ¶ 7, Comp. Exh. 4).

10. Between October 6, 2017 and October 16, 2018, Defendant Tim Hunte DBA KATT Distribution made payments to the Oasis Entities totaling $20,101.06 and between January 2, 2018 and October 16, 2018, Defendant KATT Distribution received payments from the Oasis Entities totaling $72,327.74. (Davis Decl. ¶ 24, Exh. D).

11. The difference in the amount that the Remaining Defendants invested in the Oasis Entities and the amount that the Oasis Entities returned to those defendants in excess of the investment are:

- a. Defendant Attia - $14,247.29
- b. Defendant KATT Distribution - $52,226.68
- c. Defendant Martini Jr. - $200,000.00
- d. Defendant Wilkerson - $15,631.78

(Davis Decl. ¶ 24, Exh. D).

12. On April 15, 2019, the Receiver was appointed by the Court presiding over C.F.T.C. v. Oasis International Group, Ltd., Case No. 8:19-CV-886-T-33SPF (M.D. Fla.) (the “Receivership Case”), as the Receiver for the Oasis Entities.

Pursuant to the Consolidated Receivership Order, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to:

...investigate the manner in which the financial and business affairs of the Receivership Defendants were conducted and (after obtaining leave of this Court) to institute such actions and legal proceedings, for the benefit and on behalf of the Receivership Estate, as the Receiver deems necessary and appropriate. The Receiver may seek, among other legal and equitable relief, the imposition of constructive trusts, disgorgement of profits, asset turnover, avoidance of fraudulent transfers, rescission and restitution, collection of debts, and such other relief from this Court as may be necessary to enforce this Order.

(Wiand Decl. ¶ 2, Exh. 1).

13. In connection with the purported investment operations of the Oasis Entities between November of 2011 to April of 2019, on August 8, 2019, Anile pled guilty to conspiracy to commit wire fraud and mail fraud, illegal monetary transaction, and false income tax return. As noted above, Anile has admitted the fraudulent nature of the scheme:

From at least as early as November 2011, through and including at least April 18, 2019, in the Middle District of Florida, the defendant, Joseph S. Anile, II, conspired with others to commit wire fraud and mail fraud. The defendant and coconspirators made false and fraudulent representations to victim-investors and potential investors to persuade them to transmit their funds, via wire and mail, to entities and accounts controlled by conspirators to be traded in the foreign exchange market ("FOREX"). In fact, the defendant and coconspirators used only a portion of the victim-investors' funds for FOREX trading, and the trading resulted in losses which conspirators concealed. They used the balance of the victim-investors' funds to make Ponzi-style payments, to perpetuate the scheme, and for their own personal enrichment....

In soliciting investments, the defendant and coconspirators made multiple false and fraudulent representations and material omissions in their communications to victim-investors and potential investors. In particular, they promoted one of the conspirators as an experienced FOREX trader with a record of success, but concealed the fact that he had been permanently banned from registering with the CFTC and was prohibited from soliciting U.S. residents to trade in FOREX and from trading FOREX for U.S. residents in any capacity. They also fraudulently represented that: (a) conspirators did not charge any fees or commissions; (b) investors were guaranteed a minimum 12 percent per year return on their investments; (c) conspirators had never had a month when they had lost money on FOREX trades; (d) interest and principal payments made to investors were funded by profitable FOREX trading; (e) conspirators owned other assets sufficient to repay investors' principal investments; and (f) an investment with conspirators was safe and without risk.

(Doc. 1-5) (emphasis added).

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. The Receiver is entitled to a summary judgment on Count I (FUFTA) under an actual fraud theory.

Fla. Stats. § 726.105(1)(a) (known as FUFTA's "actual fraud theory") provides that a transfer is fraudulent "if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation ... [w]ith actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor." Thus, the required elements under § 726.105(1)(a) are that "(1) there was a creditor to be defrauded; (2) a debtor intending fraud; and (3) a conveyance of property which could have been applicable to a debt due." Wiand v. Lee, 753 F.3d 1194, 1203 (11th Cir. 2014) quoting Nationsbank, N.A. v. Coastal Utils., Inc., 814 So.2d 1227, 1229 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002). Here, like in Lee, the Insiders—Anile and DaCorta—became debtors of the Oasis Entities when they diverted investor funds from their lawful purpose and were obligated to return those funds to the Oasis Entities (creditor) to be used for the benefit of the investors. Id. at 1203 (Explaining FUFTA’s debtor-creditor-transferee framework application to clawback claims arising from Ponzi schemes).

Just like the Ponzi scheme in Lee, the Insiders attracted new investors by promising high returns, misrepresenting performance, and misrepresenting net assets and commingled funds to make distributions to older investors. Thus, between November 2011 and April of 2019, the Oasis Entities operated as a Ponzi scheme, all transfers made to the Remaining Defendants during that time period were made with the requisite intent to defraud, and the Receiver is entitled to summary judgment on Count I under an actual fraud theory. Id. at 1201, 1203. (Affirming summary judgment in favor of receiver on FUFTA claims under actual fraud theory applying the Ponzi scheme presumption); Perkins v. Haines, 661 F.3d 623, 626 (11th Cir. 2011) (“With respect to Ponzi schemes, transfers made in furtherance of the scheme are presumed to have been made with the intent to defraud for purposes of recovering the payments” under analogous provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.)

Importantly, even if the Oasis Entities did not operate as a Ponzi scheme, the Receiver would be entitled to summary judgment because Anile’s guilty plea to wire fraud and mail fraud, illegal monetary transaction, and admission that he operated the Scheme also establishes actual intent to defraud. See United States v. Jennings, 599 F.3d 1241, 1250 (11th Cir. 2010) (“Conviction under the mail and wire fraud statutes requires proof that [defendant] intentionally participated in a scheme to defraud and used the mails or wire communications to further the scheme.”)).

B. The Receiver is entitled to summary judgment on Count I (FUFTA) under a constructive fraud theory.

Under §§ 726.105(1)(b) and 726.106(1), which codify fraudulent transfer claims under a theory of “constructive fraud,” a transfer is fraudulent under two separate circumstances. A transfer is fraudulent under both sections if the transferor did not receive reasonably equivalent value for it, and then each section contains a different (but similar) second requirement. Section 726.105(1)(b) also requires that the transferor either (i) was engaged in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets of the transferor were unreasonably small or (ii) reasonably should have believed that he would incur debts beyond his ability to pay as they became due. Fla. Stats. §§ 726.105(1)(b)1 & 2. Section 726.106(1) also requires that the transferor was insolvent at the time of the transfer or became insolvent as a result of the transfer. Id. § 726.106(1).

“Since Ponzi schemes do not generate profits sufficient to provide their promised returns, but rather use investor money to pay returns, they are insolvent and become more insolvent with each investor payment.” Wiand v. Lee, 753 F.3d 1194, 1201 (11th Cir. 2014). The debtors (Anile and DaCorta) operated the Oasis

Entities as a Ponzi scheme; therefore, the Oasis Entities were unable to pay their debts and insolvent from their inception, as a matter of law. In addition, investors in a Ponzi scheme do not provide reasonably equivalent value for their false profits, as a matter of law. In this case, the Remaining Defendants received transfers of false profits from the Scheme. Due to the Oasis Entities' insolvency during the time of the transfers, those transfers were constructively fraudulent, and the Receiver is entitled to recover them under FUFTA. Accordingly, the Receiver is entitled to summary judgments against the Remaining Defendants under the constructive fraud theory set forth in Count I.

C. The Receiver is entitled to Summary Judgment on Count II (Unjust Enrichment).

In the alternative to Count I (FUFTA), the Receiver is entitled to summary judgment on Count II because the Remaining Defendants' receipt of False Profits constitutes unjust enrichment. In Florida, unjust enrichment occurs when (1) the plaintiff has conferred a benefit on a defendant who has knowledge of such benefit, (2) the defendant has voluntarily accepted and retained the benefit, and (3) it would be inequitable under the circumstances for the defendant to retain the benefit without paying the plaintiff. See Tooltrend, Inc. v. CMT Utensili, SRL, 198 F.3d 802, 805(11th Cir. 1999). In this case, at the Insider's wrongful direction and in the course of the Scheme, the Oasis Entities conferred a benefit on the Remaining Defendants in the form of False Profits and the Remaining Defendants knowingly and voluntarily accepted and retained this benefit. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable to the Oasis Entities and their investors for the Remaining Defendants to retain the benefit without paying the value thereof. In re Burton Wiand Receivership Cases, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27929 (M.D. Fla. 2008) (Denying a motion to dismiss an unjust enrichment claim based on use of receivership entities to perpetrate a Ponzi scheme.) Further, the Scheme's collapse left hundreds of investors with collective losses of approximately $53.4 million. (Davis Decl. ¶ 21). Consequently, the Receiver has satisfied each element of his unjust enrichment claim against the Remaining Defendants.

D. The Remaining Defendants have no legal or equitable right to retain their false profits.

Because there is no genuine issue of material fact that (1) the transfers to the Remaining Defendants were made by the Insiders “with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor,” (2) the transfers to the Remaining Defendants were made when the Oasis Entities were insolvent, and (3) the Remaining Defendants received the transfers set forth herein, the Receiver is entitled to summary judgment as to Count I in the amount of the Remaining Defendants’ False Profits and prejudgment interest. Wiand v. Lee, 753 F.3d 1194 (11th Cir. 2014).

1. Affirmative Defense under Fla. Stats. § 726.109(1) fails as a matter of law.

Pursuant to Fla. Stats. § 726.109(1), “[a] transfer or obligation is not voidable under s. 726.105(1)(a) against a person who took in good faith and for a reasonably equivalent value or against any subsequent transferee or obligee.” (Emphasis added). The Remaining Defendants cannot prove that they provided reasonably equivalent value to the Oasis Entities for the transfers they received; therefore, this defense fails and whether they took in good faith is irrelevant. Courts unanimously hold that investors provide value up to the amounts of their principal investments but do not provide value for any transfers received above those amounts – i.e., False Profits – because those funds were misappropriated from other investors in the scheme. See, e.g., Wiand v. Lee, 2012 WL 6923664, at *17 (M.D. Fla. Dec. 13, 2012), adopted 2013 WL 247361 (M.D. Fla. Jan. 23, 2013) (“[A]s the Receiver indicates, it is well-settled that a receiver is entitled to recover from winning investors profits above the initial outlay, also known as ‘false profits,’ and an investor in a scheme does not provide reasonably equivalent value for any amounts received from [the] scheme that exceed the investor’s principal investment.”); Perkins, 661 F.3d at 627 (“Any transfers over and above the amount of the principal—i.e., for fictitious profits—are not made for ‘value’ because they exceed the scope of the investors’ fraud claim and may be subject to recovery....”). Here, the Remaining Defendants received payments from the Scheme that exceeded their principal investments; therefore, they did not provide reasonably equivalent value and this defense fails.

2. Innocent Defendant Defense fails because the Remaining Defendants' intent is irrelevant.

Pursuant to well-established, governing law, the requisite “actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor” arises from the conduct of the debtor/transferor—not the transferee. See, e.g., Fla. Stats. § 726.105(1)(a) (providing that a transfer is fraudulent “if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation ... [w]ith actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor”); Wing v. Horn, 2009 WL 2843342, at *3 (D. Utah Aug. 28, 2009) (“[I]n a fraudulent transfer claim, a plaintiff need only plead and prove the transferor’s ... intent to defraud.”). The transferee’s intent or knowledge of fraud is irrelevant. See, e.g., id. (“The plaintiff is not required to plead or prove that the transferee participated in the fraudulent activity.”); Lee v. Wiand, 603 B.R. 161, 169 (M.D. Fla. 2018) (upholding imposition of constructive trust and equitable lien on homestead purchased by “innocent” investors with money fraudulently transferred to them from a Ponzi scheme). Thus, the fact that the Remaining Defendants did not have knowledge or intentional participation in the Scheme is not a defense to Count I and the innocent defendant defense fails as a matter of law.

3. Equitable Estoppel, Unclean Hands, and Fraud defenses fail.

Similar to the “innocent defendant defense,” some of the Remaining Defendants claim the Receiver’s claims are barred because of the Oasis Entities’ involvement in the Ponzi scheme. This argument is without merit. Entities used to perpetrate a Ponzi scheme are separate legal entities with rights and duties. When money received from investors is used for unauthorized purposes, the entity is harmed because the investors become tort creditors of the entity. Even though the Oasis Entities participated in the fraudulent transfers, once the Ponzi schemers were removed and the Receiver was appointed, the Oasis Entities became entitled to the return of the money diverted for unauthorized purposes. In this case, the Receivership Entities became entitled to return of the false profits when the Receiver was appointed. Wiand v. Lee, 753 F.3d 1194, 1202 (11th Cir. 2014). Thus, the Oasis Entities' prior participation in the Scheme does not bar the Receiver's claims and these defenses fail.

4. Remaining Defendants may not offset damages with investments made in another entity.

Defendant Martini, Jr.'s Answer (Doc. 413) asserted an affirmative defense to offset his false profit with monies he previously invested with Strata Capital, Inc. ("Strata"); however, this defense fails because it lacks the required mutuality of claims between the same parties. Wiand v. Meeker, 572 Fed. Appx. 689, 961 (11th Cir. 2014) ("Setoff is permitted only where there is mutuality of claims between the parties. Mutuality of claims requires that the claims exist between the same parties acting in the same capacities."); see also Everglade Cypress Co. v. Tunncliffe, 148 So.192, 193 (Fla. 1933) ("The very essence of and basis for set off is mutuality of claims, that is to say, claims existing between the same parties and in the same right.”) Here, the undisputed facts establish that Martini, Jr. does not have the mutuality of claims and parties necessary to offset damages.

In 2009, Martini, Jr. invested $200,000.00 in Strata, through DaCorta, and received Strata shares in exchange for that payment. That same year, Strata paid Martini, Jr. $15,000.00 in earnings stemming from his Strata investment. See Wiand Decl. in Support of MSJ, Comp. Exh. 4, Martini, Jr. Ans. to Inter. Nos.1, 4. In 2013, without requiring payment to an Oasis Entity, OIG, DaCorta converted Martini, Jr.’s Strata shares to $200,000.00 in founders’ shares in OIG. Id. at Int. no. 4. Accordingly, Martini, Jr. did not pay OIG consideration for the $200,000.00 worth of shares he received. Over the next few years, Martini, Jr. continued to ask DaCorta to return his $200,000.00 investment in Strata. By September 26, 2016, DaCorta redeemed all of Martini, Jr.’s OIG shares and paid him $200,000.00 from the Oasis Entities’ assets. Id. Because these facts do not establish the requisite mutuality of claims and parties, this affirmative defense fails as a matter of law and Martini, Jr. is not entitled to offset his damages with his investment in Strata.

4) Statute of Limitations defense fails.

Many of the Remaining Defendants have asserted statute of limitations as an affirmative defense; however, this defense also fails. Fla. Stat. § 726.105(1)(a) is subject to a four (4) year statute of limitations but is also subject to a one (1) year savings clause to discover the fraudulent transfer. Indeed, under Florida law, the one

(1) year savings period began to run when the Receiver was appointed in 2019 and because the Receiver filed suit within a year of that date, the claims are timely. Wiand v. Meeker, 572 Fed. Appx. 689, 692 (11th Cir. 2014) (holding Receiver's claim to be timely when brought within one year of his appointment). Accordingly, the Receiver's claims filed under Fla. Stat. § 726.105(1)(a) are timely and the statute of limitations defense fails.

E. Damages

In this case, the Receiver has set forth the sum certain plus prejudgment interest beginning from the date of each false profit distribution, through May 31, 2021 and continuing thereafter at a per diem rate as a decimal of 0.000118082. The prejudgment interest calculations pertaining to the Remaining Defendants are set forth in Composite Exhibit "2" to Wiand's Declaration in Support of this Motion. See Wiand v. Dancing $, LLC, 578 Fed. Appx. 938 947 (11th Cir. 2014) (holding that the Receiver was entitled to recover prejudgment interest on FUFTA claim, "...in light of Florida's general rule that prejudgment interest is an element of pecuniary damages."). Thus, the Receiver seeks the return of Remaining Defendants' False Profits plus prejudgment interest beginning from the date of each false profit distribution through May 31, 2021 and continuing thereafter at a per diem rate as a decimal of 0.000118082 as set forth in Composite Exhibit "2" to Wiand's Declaration in Support of this Motion.

IV. CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, the Receiver respectfully requests an order granting summary judgment on (1) Count I against: (a) Defendant Attia in the amount of $14,247.29, plus prejudgment interest through May 31, 2021 of $5,744.79 and additional prejudgment interest until judgment is entered against Defendant Attia, (b) in the amount of $52,226.68, plus prejudgment interest through May 31, 2021 of $9,066.98 and additional prejudgment interest until judgment is entered against Defendant KATT Distribution, (c) Defendant Martini Jr. in the amount of $200,000.00, plus prejudgment interest through May 31, 2021 of $58,644.09 and additional prejudgment interest until judgment is entered against Defendant Martini, Jr., and (d) Defendant Wilkerson in the amount of $15,631.78, plus prejudgment interest through May 31, 2021 of $3,620.70 and additional prejudgment interest until judgment is entered against Defendant Wilkerson; or, in the alternative, on (2) Count II for the same amounts set forth. Further, the Receiver also requests post-judgment interest and costs.

WHEREAS this matter comes before this Court upon Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission's ("CFTC" or "Commission") Unopposed Motion for Entry of Consent Orders of Preliminary Injunction Against Defendants Raymond P. Montie, III ("Montie"), Exhibit "1"

John J. Haas (“Haas”), and Satellite Holdings Company (“SHC”), and Consent Order of Amended Preliminary Injunction and Other Equitable Relief Against Defendant Francisco “Frank” L. WHEREAS the Court finds that, based on the record in these proceedings, the entry of these three orders is necessary and appropriate for the purposes of marshalling and preserving all assets (real, personal, intangible, or otherwise) of the Defendants and the Relief Defendants (“Receivership Assets”) as well as the assets of any other entities or individuals that: (a) are attributable to funds derived from pool participants, lenders, investors, or clients of the Defendants and/or Relief Defendants; (b) are held in constructive trust for the Defendants and/or Relief Defendants; (c) were fraudulently transferred by the Defendants and/or Relief Defendants; and/or (d) may otherwise be includable as assets of the estates of the Defendants and/or Relief Defendants (collectively, the “Recoverable Assets”) (Receivership Assets and Recoverable Assets, collectively, are referred to herein as “Receivership Property”); and,

Subject to the requirement in Section VIII above, that leave of this Court is required to resume or commence certain litigation, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to investigate, prosecute, defend, intervene in or otherwise participate in, compromise, and/or adjust actions in any state, federal or foreign court or proceeding of any kind as may in his discretion, and in consultation with the CFTC's counsel, be advisable or proper to recover and/or conserve Receivership Property.

44. Subject to his obligation to expend receivership funds in a reasonable and cost-effective manner, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to investigate the manner in which the financial and business affairs of the Receivership Defendants were conducted and (after obtaining leave of this Court) to institute such actions and legal proceedings, for the benefit and on behalf of the Receivership Estate, as the Receiver deems necessary and appropriate. The Receiver may seek, among other legal and equitable relief, the imposition of constructive trusts, disgorgement of profits, asset turnover, avoidance of fraudulent transfers, rescission and restitution, collection of debts, and such other relief from this Court as may be necessary to enforce this Order. Where appropriate, the Receiver should provide prior notice to counsel for the CFTC before commencing investigations and/or actions.

45. The Receiver hereby holds, and is therefore empowered to waive, all privileges, including the attorney-client privilege, held by all entity Receivership Defendants.

46. The Receiver has a continuing duty to ensure that there are no conflicts of interest between the Receiver, his Retained Personnel (as that term is defined below), and the Receivership Estate.

XI. Bankruptcy Filing

47. The Receiver may seek authorization of this Court to file voluntary petitions for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") for the Receivership Defendants. In such a situation, the Receiver shall have all of the powers and duties as provided a debtor in possession under the Bankruptcy Code to the exclusion of any other person or entity. Pursuant to Paragraph 5 above, the Receiver is vested with management authority for all entity Receivership Defendants and may therefore file and manage a Chapter 11 petition.

48. The provisions of Section VIII above bar any person or entity, other than the Receiver, from placing any of the Receivership Defendants in bankruptcy proceedings.

XII. Liability of Receiver

49. Until further Order of this Court, the Receiver shall not be required to post bond or give an undertaking of any type in connection with his fiduciary obligations in this matter.

50. The Receiver and his agents, acting within scope of such agency, are entitled to rely on all outstanding rules of law and Orders of this Court and shall not be liable to anyone for their own good faith compliance with any order, rule, law, judgment, or decree. In no event shall the Receiver or his agents be liable to anyone for their good faith compliance with their duties and responsibilities.

51. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over any action filed against the Receiver or Retained Personnel based upon acts or omissions committed in their representative capacities.

52. In the event the Receiver decides to resign, the Receiver shall first give written notice to the CFTC's counsel of record and the Court of its intention, and the resignation shall not be effective until the Court appoints a successor. The Receiver shall then follow such instructions as the Court may provide.

XIII. Recommendations and Reports

53. The Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to develop a plan for the fair, reasonable, and efficient recovery and liquidation of all remaining, recovered, and recoverable Receivership Property (the "Liquidation Plan").

54. The Receiver has filed and the Court has approved a Liquidation Plan. Doc. ##103, 112.

55. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver shall file and serve a full report and accounting of his activities (the "Quarterly Status Report"), reflecting (to the best of the Receiver's knowledge as of the period covered by the report) the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Property, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the Receivership Estate. The Receiver filed his first Status Report on June 14, 2019. Doc. #113. His next Status Report shall be due within thirty (30) days of September 30, 2019, which is the end of the third calendar quarter for 2019.

- F. The status of creditor claims proceedings, after such proceedings have been commenced; and,
- G. The Receiver's recommendations for a continuation or discontinuation of the receivership and the reasons for the recommendations.

57. On the request of the CFTC, the Receiver shall provide the CFTC with any documentation that the CFTC deems necessary to meet its reporting requirements, that is mandated by statute or Congress, or that is otherwise necessary to further the CFTC's mission.

XIV. Fees, Expenses and Accountings

58. Subject to Paragraphs 59–65 immediately below, the Receiver need not obtain Court approval prior to the disbursement of Receivership Funds for expenses in the ordinary course of the administration and operation of the receivership. Further, prior Court approval is not required for payments of applicable federal, state, or local taxes.

59. Subject to Paragraph 60 immediately below, the Receiver is authorized to solicit persons and entities (“Retained Personnel”) to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities described in this Order. The Receiver shall not engage any Retained Personnel without obtaining an Order of the Court authorizing such engagement.

60. The Receiver and Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estates. The Receiver and Retained Personnel shall not be compensated or reimbursed by, or otherwise entitled to, any funds from the Court or the CFTC. Such compensation shall require the prior review by the CFTC and approval of the Court.

61. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver and Retained Personnel shall apply to the Court for compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estates (the “Quarterly Fee Applications”). At least thirty (30) days prior to filing each Quarterly Fee Application with the Court, the Receiver will serve upon counsel for the CFTC a complete copy of the proposed Quarterly Fee Application, together with all exhibits and relevant billing information in a format to be provided by the CFTC’s staff. The Receiver filed his first fee application on June 14, 2019. Doc. #114. The next fee application shall be due within forty-five (45) days after September

62. All Quarterly Fee Applications will be interim and will be subject to cost benefit and final reviews at the close of the receivership. At the close of the receivership, the Receiver will file a final fee application, describing in detail the costs and benefits associated with all litigation and other actions pursued by the Receiver during the course of the receivership.

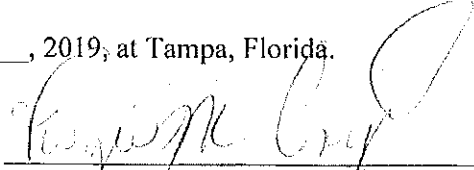

63. Quarterly Fee Applications may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court. The total amounts held back during the course of the receivership will be paid out at the discretion of the Court as part of the final fee application submitted at the close of the receivership.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF,
CIVIL MONETARY PENALTIES, RESTITUTION, DISGORGEMENT AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC" or "Commission"), by and through its attorneys, alleges as follows:

JUL 18 2019

I. SUMMARY

1. Since 2011, Defendants Oasis International Group, Limited (“OIG”), Oasis Management, LLC (“OM”), Satellite Holdings Company (“Satellite Holdings”), Michael J. DaCorta (“DaCorta”), Joseph S. Anile, II (“Anile”), Raymond P. Montie, III (“Montie”), Francisco “Frank” L. Duran (“Duran”), and John J. Haas (“Haas”), (collectively, “Defendants”) have engaged in a fraudulent scheme to solicit and misappropriate money from over 700 U.S. residents for pooled investments in retail foreign currency contracts (“forex”). Between mid-April 2014 and the present (the “Relevant Period”), Defendants have fraudulently solicited hundreds of members of the public (“pool participants”) to invest approximately $75 million in two commodity pools—Oasis Global FX, Limited (“Oasis Pool 1”) and Oasis Global FX, SA (“Oasis Pool 2”) (collectively, the “Oasis Pools”)—that purportedly would trade in forex. Rather than use pool participants’ funds for forex trading as promised, however, Defendants have traded only a small portion of pool funds in forex—which trading incurred losses—and instead misappropriated the majority of pool participants’ funds and issued false account statements to pool participants to conceal their trading losses and misappropriation.

2. In the course of their fraudulent scheme and during the Relevant Period, Defendants made material misrepresentations to pool participants, including that: (1) all pool funds would be used to trade forex; (2) pool participants would receive a minimum 12% guaranteed annual return from this forex trading; (3) the Oasis Pools were profitable and returned 22% in 2017 and 21% in 2018; (4) the Oasis Pools had never had a losing month; (5) money being returned to pool participants was from profitable trading; (6) there was no risk of loss with the Oasis Pools; and (7) pool participants earned extra returns by referring other pool participants to the Oasis Pools. Defendants also omitted to tell pool participants, among other things, that DaCorta—the CEO of OIG and the Oasis Pools’ head trader—had been permanently banned from registering with the Commission in 2010 and was prohibited from soliciting U.S. residents to trade forex and from trading forex for U.S. residents in any capacity.

3. Defendants’ representations were false. The Defendants have misappropriated the majority of pool funds. Of the approximate $75 million Defendants received from pool participants during the Relevant Period, Defendants deposited only $21 million into forex trading accounts in the names of the Oasis Pools, all of which has been lost trading forex. Defendants misappropriated over $28 million of pool funds to make Ponzi-like payments to other pool participants. Defendants misappropriated over $18 million of pool funds—at least $7 million of which was transferred to Relief Defendants—for unauthorized personal or business expenses such as real estate purchases in Florida, exotic vacations, sports tickets, pet supplies, loans to family members, and college and study abroad tuition.

4. To conceal their trading losses and misappropriation, Defendants created and issued false account statements to pool participants that inflated and misrepresented the value of the pool participants’ investments in the Oasis Pools and the Oasis Pools’ trading returns.

5. By virtue of this conduct and the conduct further described herein, Defendants—either directly or as controlling persons—have engaged, are engaging, or are about to engage in acts and practices in violation of Sections 4b(a)(2)(A)-(C), 4k(2), 4m(1), 4o(1)(A)-(B), and 2(c)(2)(iii)(I)(cc) of the Commodity Exchange Act (the “Act”), 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b(a)(2)(A)-(C), 6k(2), 6m(1), 6o(1)(A)-(B), 2(c)(2)(iii)(I)(cc) (2012), and Commission Regulations (“Regulations”) 4.20(b)-(c), 4.21, 5.2(b)(1)-(3), and 5.3(a)(2), 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b)-(c), 4.21, 5.2(b)(1)-(3), 5.3(a)(2) (2018).

6. Unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, Defendants will likely continue to engage in acts and practices alleged in this Complaint and similar acts and practices, as described below.

7. Accordingly, the Commission brings this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), and Section 2(c)(2)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C) (2012), to enjoin Defendants’ unlawful acts and practices, to compel their compliance with the Act and the Regulations promulgated thereunder, and to enjoin them from engaging in any commodity-related activity. In addition, the Commission seeks civil monetary penalties and remedial ancillary relief, including, but not limited to, trading and registration bans, restitution, disgorgement, rescission, pre- and post-judgment interest, and such other and further relief as the Court may deem necessary and appropriate.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. The Court has jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2012) (codifying federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2012) (providing that district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). In addition, Section 6c(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2012), authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive and other relief against any person whenever it shall appear to the Commission that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act, or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder. Section 2(c)(2)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C) (2012), subjects the forex solicitations and transactions at issue in this action to, inter alia, Sections 4b and 4o of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b, 6o (2012), as further described below.

9. Venue lies properly in this Court pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(c) (2012), because Defendants transacted business in this District and certain transactions, acts, practices, and courses of business in violation of the Act and the Regulations occurred, are occurring, or are about to occur in this District, among other places.

| Oasis Global FX, Limited ("OGFXL") | New Zealand (May 2012 - June 2015) | Some pool funds were transferred to a forex trading account in OGFXL's name at forex firm in the United Kingdom ("UK Forex Firm"). All of the pool funds transferred to this account were lost trading forex. OGFXL is owned by OIG and is licensed as a financial services provider in New Zealand. |
| Oasis Global FX, S.A. ("OGFXS") | Belize (August 2016-present) | Some pool funds were transferred to a forex trading account in OGFXS's name at the UK Forex Firm. All of the pool funds transferred to this account were lost trading forex. OGFXS is owned by Anile and is licensed as a financial services provider in Belize. |

29. Among other things, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings share the same office and employees, commingle funds, and operate under one overarching name “Oasis.” Additionally, DaCorta and/or Anile own and control OIG, OM, OGFXL, and OGFXS. Haas owns and controls Satellite Holdings, but also works for OIG.

30. The Oasis enterprise appears to operate one common website. During a part of the Relevant Period, the website was located at www.oasisinternationalgrouppltd.com. According to this website, Oasis “provides an array of asset management and advisory services, including corporate finance and investment banking . . . investment sales/trading and clearing services . . . financial product development, and alternative investment products.”

31. The Oasis website has a banner prominently displayed across the bottom of each page, which states:

The services and products offered by Oasis International Group Ltd. are not being offered within the United States (US) and [are] not being offered to US persons, as defined under US law. As such, should you reside in, or be a citizen, or a taxpayer of the US or any US territory, any email message received is not intended to serve as a solicitation or inducement on behalf of any of the aforementioned entities.

32. Despite this disclaimer, Defendants have solicited hundreds of U.S. residents, continue to actively solicit U.S. residents to invest in the Oasis Pools, and have accepted funds for the Oasis Pools from at least 700 U.S. residents.

33. OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings had no policies, procedures or financial controls, did not keep regular or accurate books and records, and did not prepare regular or accurate financial or pool performance statements.

B. DaCorta's Permanent Registration Ban

34. From November 2006 to August 2010, DaCorta was listed as a principal with NFA and registered with the Commission as an AP of a CTA called International Currency Traders, Ltd. ("ICT"), which offered forex trading to U.S. retail customers. DaCorta was ICT's President.

35. In 2009, the NFA—the self-regulatory organization designated by the Commission as a registered futures association—identified several violations of NFA rules by ICT. Among other things, the NFA discovered that DaCorta and ICT solicited some of their forex customers to loan money to ICT, and that some of those funds were used to make payments to former ICT customers with trading losses in 2007. The customers who loaned the money to ICT were not told that their money would go to other ICT customers.

36. In August 2010, DaCorta and the NFA entered into an agreement whereby DaCorta agreed to withdraw from NFA membership and never to re-apply for NFA membership in any capacity, at any time in the future, to avoid an NFA disciplinary action against him and ICT. Effectively, this meant DaCorta was permanently banned from registering with the Commission as a CPO, CTA, or as an AP or principal of a CPO or CTA.

37. During the Relevant Period, Defendants did not disclose to pool participants that DaCorta was permanently banned from registering with the Commission and could not solicit investments or invest for others in, among other things, retail forex.

C. Defendants' Unprofitable Trading

38. In or around April 2015, Anile opened a forex trading account at the U.K. Forex Broker. The forex trading account was held in the name of and for the benefit of OGFXL, which is a New Zealand company owned by OIG. DaCorta is the president and Anile is the vice president of OGFXL. Anile and DaCorta were the only signatories on this forex trading account, and DaCorta was the only person authorized to trade the account. Approximately $1,650,000 was deposited into the account. The account suffered net trading losses of approximately $1,654,000 and was closed February 7, 2017.

39. In or around December 2016, Anile opened another forex trading account at the UK Forex Broker. This forex trading account was held in the name of and for the benefit of OGFXS, a Belizean company owned by Anile. Anile is the only signatory on the account, yet indicated on the account opening documents that another person would trade the account. DaCorta also traded this account. Between January 2017 and November 30, 2018, this account received deposits totaling $19,625,000. As of November 29, 2018, this account had total losses of approximately $60 million. As of November 30, 2018, this account remained open with a balance of approximately $750,000.

40. Through the UK Forex Broker accounts, Defendants engaged in forex transactions on a leveraged or margined basis that did not result in delivery within two days or otherwise create an enforceable obligation to deliver between a seller and buyer that have the ability to deliver and accept delivery, respectively, in connection with their line of business. The trades were leveraged 100:1, which means that the Oasis Pools could trade forex contracts valued at one hundred times the amount of cash in the OGFXL and OGFXS trading accounts.

41. Defendants do not appear to have traded forex in any other accounts during the Relevant Period.

D. Defendants' Fraudulent Solicitations for the Oasis Pools

42. During the Relevant Period, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings, by and through DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas (and/or their other employees or agents), fraudulently solicited and obtained over $75 million from approximately 650 pool participants as investments in the Oasis Pools. Defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions to pool participants and prospective pool participants via the Oasis website, group conference calls hosted by Oasis, telephone calls, in-person meetings, and in promissory notes they executed with pool participants. Defendants' fraudulent solicitations, as is illustrated by the following representative examples, included, but were not limited to, representations that:

- a) all pool funds would be used to trade forex;
- b) pool participants would receive a minimum 12% guaranteed annual return from forex trading;
- c) the Oasis Pools were profitable and returned 22% in 2017 and 21% in 2018;
- d) the Oasis Pools never had a losing month;
- e) money being returned to pool participants was from profitable trading;
- f) there was no risk of loss with the Oasis Pools; and
- g) pool participants could earn extra returns by referring other pool participants to the Oasis Pools.

43. In June 2017, pool participant K.M. learned about Oasis from Montie at a retreat Montie hosted at his house in New Hampshire for her and others, all of whom knew Montie through Ambit Energy ("Ambit"), a company with which Montie is affiliated. During the retreat, Montie told K.M. and others the following about the Oasis Pools:

- a) Montie was making a sizable profit on his Oasis investment from profitable forex trading;
- b) current Oasis pool participants were making between 12% and 25% from Oasis's forex trading;
- c) there was little risk of loss associated with the Oasis Pools because Oasis was a middleman for forex trading; and
- d) pool funds would be used to trade forex.

44. Between June and July 2017, K.M. participated in conference calls during which Montie and DaCorta made representations about the Oasis Pools, including:

- a) the Oasis Pools were making a guaranteed minimum of 12% per year;
- b) there was little risk of loss associated with the Oasis Pools; and
- c) pool funds would only be used to trade forex.

45. Based on Montie's and DaCorta's representations about the Oasis Pools, K.M. invested $20,000 in Oasis in 2017 and $37,500 in 2018, some of which was from her Roth IRA.

46. In or about October 2017, pool participant G.M. learned about Oasis through Montie, who G.M. knew through Ambit. Montie told G.M. the following:

- a) Montie had known DaCorta for about six years;
- b) DaCorta had turned $25,000 into over $31,000 for him in a few months;
- c) the Oasis Pools were earning about 20% per year trading forex;
- d) the Oasis Pools were low-risk because the forex trading was not dependent on whether the market went up or down; and
- e) pool funds would only be used to trade forex.

47. In December 2017, Montie told G.M. that he could earn additional money by referring others to Oasis because Oasis was able to pay a referral fee from its forex trading profits.

48. In late October 2018, G.M. participated in an Oasis conference call led by Montie and DaCorta. The following occurred during the call:

- a) Montie introduced DaCorta and explained how they came to form OIG;
- b) Montie explained that DaCorta turned $25,000 into $31,000 for Montie in a relatively short period of time;
- c) DaCorta explained that he worked on Wall Street from a young age;
- d) DaCorta explained that the Oasis Pools made money trading forex by capturing the bid/ask spread;
- e) DaCorta said the Oasis Pools made a minimum 1% monthly return;
- f) DaCorta said the only risk associated with the Oasis Pools was if all the large banks failed or the dollar collapsed;
- g) DaCorta said the only money at risk was what belonged to Oasis because pool funds were just collateral; and
- h) DaCorta said pool funds would only be used for forex trading and made no mention of pool funds being used to purchase real estate or cars.

49. In or about August 2018, Montie organized a trip for G.M. and others to visit Oasis's offices on Longboat Key. Montie arranged the trip to get Oasis pool participants fired up about Oasis and so they would refer others to Oasis. During the visit, Montie, DaCorta, and others made a presentation about Oasis during which they represented the following:

- a) Oasis had $110 million under management;
- b) Oasis held substantial amounts of cash and had strong financial standing; and

- c) Oasis purchased real estate, including the Longboat Key office, from forex trading profits.

50. G.M. assumed that Montie, as a principal, was receiving Oasis financial statements and other information to verify the representations made about Oasis and the Oasis Pools.

51. G.M. invested $500,000 in the Oasis Pools beginning in November 2017, based on Montie's and DaCorta's representations about Oasis, approximately $180,000 of which was from his IRA.

52. In 2017, Montie solicited pool participant M.B. for the Oasis Pools. M.B. knew Montie and Haas through Ambit. In late 2017, M.B. participated in an Oasis conference call led by Montie, DaCorta, and Haas with several other prospective pool participants. The following occurred during the call:

- a) Montie introduced DaCorta as his friend and business partner;
- b) Montie explained that DaCorta had invested in forex for him several years earlier and had earned "incredible returns" in only sixty days;
- c) DaCorta stated that Anile handled the legal, compliance and administrative work for Oasis, Montie handled Oasis's marketing, and DaCorta did the trading for Oasis;
- d) DaCorta stated the Oasis Pools guaranteed a minimum 12% annual return, but the Oasis Pools had always returned more than 12%;
- e) DaCorta stated if the Oasis Pools did not make 12% a year Oasis would make up the difference;
- f) DaCorta stated the Oasis Pools would probably return 24% in 2017;
- g) Montie stated the Oasis pools were up 3.6% for the current month;
- h) Montie encouraged call participants to text him any questions;

- i) a call participant asked if Oasis's results were audited and Montie responded that Oasis wasn't audited because it was just getting started;
- j) a call participant asked what the risks were with Oasis and DaCorta responded that the only risk associated with the Oasis Pools was if something happened to the banking system and that having money in the Oasis Pools held the same risk as holding funds at a bank or major brokerage firm; and
- k) DaCorta stated that the risk with the Oasis Pools was "fairly mundane compared to where you are holding positions in stocks, commodities, etc."

53. After the conference call, M.B. had several conversations with Haas in which Haas reiterated that: 1) the Oasis Pools returned 12% per year; 2) because Oasis was a market maker, the only risk was if a banking crisis occurred; and 3) pool participants' funds would be sitting at large domestic and international investment banks backing forex trades.

54. Later, on or about April 1, 2018, M.B. had a call with Montie to ask follow-up questions about Oasis before he sent money to Oasis. The following occurred during the call:

- a) M.B. told Montie "I know you, but I don't know DaCorta and for all I know DaCorta is Bernie Madoff" and asked Montie if he would have access to M.B.'s money after M.B. invested in the Oasis Pools;
- b) Montie responded by vouching for DaCorta and explaining that M.B. could get his money out of the Oasis Pools because Montie had access to the Oasis accounts and log-ins to the bank accounts; and
- c) Montie told M.B. that the worst thing that could happen if M.B. invested in the Oasis Pools is that M.B. would only get his initial investment back.

55. Based on Montie's, Haas's, and DaCorta's representations about Oasis, M.B. invested $110,000 in Oasis in 2018, including money from IRAs.

56. In March or April 2018, Oasis pool participant D.J.C. learned about Oasis through another Oasis pool participant. D.J.C. also knew Montie through Ambit. Around that same time, D.J.C. participated in an Oasis conference call with several other prospective pool participants during which Haas and Montie provided information about the Oasis Pools.

Montie and Haas stated the following on the conference call:

- a) Oasis was an investment in forex trading;
- b) Montie had been investing in forex with DaCorta for several years and his experience with DaCorta and forex trading led to the creation of Oasis;
- c) the Oasis Pools had never lost money;
- d) the Oasis pools were returning a guaranteed 1% monthly return from trading forex, but returns could be higher;
- e) the only way the Oasis Pools would lose money was if the entire economy melted down; and
- f) pool funds would only be used to trade forex.

57. D.J.C. followed up with Montie in the fall of 2018 regarding Oasis, and Montie organized a call with DaCorta. On October 26, 2018, Montie, DaCorta, and D.J.C. had a conference call. Montie and DaCorta reiterated what Montie and Haas said on the prior conference call in March or April 2018, including that Oasis had a guaranteed 12% annual return, Oasis had never lost money; it would take a significant economic global event for Oasis to lose money, and pool funds would only be used to trade forex.

58. D.J.C. invested a total of $750,000 in the Oasis Pools in October 2018, based on Montie's, Haas's, and DaCorta's representations.

59. In or about September 2018, Oasis pool participant C.M. learned about Oasis through some Ambit colleagues. C.M. knew Montie and Haas through Ambit. C.M. participated in an Oasis conference call led by Montie and Haas in or about October 2018. The following occurred on the conference call:

- a) Montie opened the call and explained how he and DaCorta became acquainted;
- b) Montie stated that the Oasis Pools had never had a down day and there was a guaranteed minimum annual return of 12%;
- c) Montie stated that the Oasis Pool traded forex;
- d) Haas reiterated that the Oasis Pool made a minimum 12% guaranteed annual return and that the Oasis Pools had never had a down day;
- e) Haas stated that the Oasis Pools were in and out of forex trades so quickly there was no risk involved;
- f) Haas stated that the only risk to investing with the Oasis Pools was if the entire banking system or economy collapsed; and
- g) Haas said pool funds would be used only for forex trading.

60. After the conference call, C.M. emailed Haas asking for further clarification about the risk of loss associated with the Oasis Pools and where pool funds were held. Haas responded “[f]unds are just sitting in an account. Nothing to unwind, no ‘projects that went bad’ nothing that has to sell, etc... The funds can just be all sent back at once to everyone if need be.”

61. A few weeks later, C.M. participated in another Oasis conference call led by Montie and DaCorta. Montie stated that the Oasis Pools guaranteed a minimum 12% annual return. DaCorta stated that the Oasis Pools usually made more than 12% a year and stated that the only risk associated with the Oasis Pools was if the entire banking system collapsed.

62. C.M. invested $66,000 in the Oasis Pools in 2018 based on representations by Montie, Haas, and DaCorta.

63. In 2018, Montie spearheaded a contest amongst Oasis salespeople to get $20 million invested in the Oasis Pools by the end of 2018. As part of the contest, Montie held a conference with Oasis salespeople on October 30, 2018. The following occurred on the call:

- a) Montie stated the Oasis Pools had taken in more than $11 million, but Montie wanted $9 million more;
- b) Montie stated the Oasis Pools were going to finish October between 1.2% and 1.4%, there was potential for a big November, and December was projected to finish at 1.5%, which should get everyone excited for the contest and the Oasis Pools;
- c) Montie stated he wanted everyone to use December's projected returns of 1.5% to talk to people who were on the fence about the Oasis Pools and get them off the fence;
- d) Montie stated the contest prizes included a fishing trip in Louisiana and, if Oasis brought in enough money, Oasis would reimburse salespeople for their airfare to and hotels in Sarasota for the Oasis holiday party in December;
- e) Montie stated he wanted to crank up the conference calls Oasis was hosting for prospective pool participants, DaCorta was committed to doing one conference call a week, and Montie, Haas, and others were committed to doing four to five conference calls a week;
- f) Haas stated he had sent emails to everyone on his distribution list about Oasis making 1.5% in December, which generated a lot of excitement and interest in the Oasis Pools; and
- g) Montie stated that the Oasis Pools were north of 17% for the year, closing in on a guaranteed 20% for 2018, and everyone should keep these returns in mind as they solicited prospective pool participants.

64. In early January 2019, Defendant Montie participated in a call with prospective pool participant L.T. and his investment advisor D.S. During the call the following occurred:

- a) Montie explained that Oasis was a privately held company in the Cayman Islands that invested in forex;

- b) Montie said that Oasis divided the returns it earned trading forex with pool participants who loaned Oasis money and that interest was deposited into pool participants' accounts on a daily basis;
- c) Montie said that any pool participant who brought other pool participants into Oasis would receive a portion of the interest their referral earned from the Oasis Pools;
- d) Montie said that Oasis had never had a down day trading forex and portrayed Oasis as "no risk;"
- e) Montie said there was no income or net worth requirements for investing in Oasis;
- f) D.S. asked Montie how Oasis would calculate L.T.'s minimum IRA distribution and whether Oasis would be issuing year-end tax reporting statements, as these were critical pieces of information for L.T. and required by the IRS, to which Montie responded that he was not familiar with these requirements; and
- g) in reviewing sample Oasis account statements with Montie, D.S. remarked that Oasis's returns were incredible and inquired why other large players in the forex market such as large investment banks were not able to produce the returns Oasis generated, to which Montie responded that Oasis was working a $4-7 trillion currency market and wanted to share this with other people.

65. On January 24, 2019, Oasis Pool Participants C.B. and L.B, a couple from Northport, Florida who invested their IRA and life savings in the Oasis Pools based on representations made by Defendant Montie, met with a person they believed to be a prospective pool participant ("Prospective Pool Participant #1") and shared their experiences with Oasis. C.B. and L.B. told Prospective Pool Participant #1 that Defendant Montie told the couple the following:

- a) the Oasis Pools were investing in forex;
- b) pool participants would receive a minimum return of 12% per year;
- c) pool participants would earn an additional 25% of the returns of any pool participant they referred to Oasis;

- d) Montie, as a favor, would allow the couple to get referral fees from a pool participant who recently invested a large sum in the Oasis Pools, so the couple would earn additional interest based on this referral;
- e) DaCorta traded forex for the Oasis Pools and was the brains of the operation;
- f) the only time the Oasis Pools lost money was about seven years ago when the Oasis Pools were just getting started and only Montie's money was lost; and
- g) even though pool participants are called lenders, they are really investors.

66. On January 25, 2019 Defendant Montie had a telephone call with Prospective Pool Participant #1. Prospective Pool Participant #1 told Montie he was interested in investing in the Oasis Pools. In response, Montie stated the following:

- a) Montie started Oasis about eight years ago after meeting Defendant DaCorta in Poughkeepsie, New York;
- b) Montie gave DaCorta $25,000 to trade in October 2011 and within approximately seventy days DaCorta had turned it into $37,000 trading forex;
- c) in January 2012, Montie brought in some friends and family and DaCorta started trading their money (approximately $81,000);
- d) in seven years Oasis has grown to having $130 million under management;
- e) the Oasis Pools earned a 22% return in 2017 and a 21% return in 2018;
- f) the Oasis Pools average a 1% monthly return and have never had a losing month;
- g) the Oasis Pools are a lot less risky than the stock market;
- h) Montie had all of his friends and family involved in the Oasis Pools and they were doing extremely well; and
- i) pool participants' funds are used only to trade forex.

67. On January 30, 2019, Defendant Duran met with Prospective Pool Participant #1 at Oasis's offices in Longboat Key. Prospective Pool Participant #1 indicated he was interested in investing in the Oasis Pools. In response, Duran stated the following:

- a) the Oasis Pools would return a minimum of 12% per year;
- b) when the Oasis Pools made more than 12% a year, Oasis paid 25% of these additional returns back to pool participants and 75% of these additional returns went "to the house" to pay OIG's expenses, fees, salaries, referral fees, and to purchase real estate;
- c) the Oasis Pools made a 21% return in 2018;
- d) the Oasis Pools had $100 million under management;
- e) the Oasis Pools' trading platform could not lose money unless there was a bigger problem in the financial markets and people were going to supermarkets with shotguns;
- f) Duran invested in the Oasis Pools, has been helping DaCorta with the day-to-day operations of OIG because he wants to be close to his money; and has been getting money wired to his accounts every day at 7:30 p.m.;
- g) DaCorta was the head trader for the Oasis Pools and Oasis traded forex twenty-four hours a day, five days a week, with Oasis traders working three shifts; and
- h) OIG purchased OIG's office and personal residences for Defendants DaCorta, Anile and Duran.

68. On February 20, 2019, Defendant Duran sent Prospective Pool Participant #1 an email from fduran@oasisig.com entitled "Fw: wire instructions.pdf." The email states that funds should be wired to account XXXXXX0764 at Bank #2. The beneficiary was designated as Relief Defendant Mainstream Fund Services, Inc., with a reference to "fbo Oasis International Group, Ltd."

69. That same day, Duran sent Prospective Pool Participant #1 another email from fduran@oasisig.com, attaching a sample promissory note. The attachment is entitled “PROMISSORY NOTE AND LOAN AGREEMENT” and the maker of the note is “Oasis International Group, Ltd.” The note states that payee would receive the greater of interest calculated at 12% per year or 25% of the Transaction Fees, which were defined as “the fees charged by OIG upon the Loan Amount in its ordinary course of business through a proprietary trading account” of OIG. The Promissory Note is signed by Defendant DaCorta as CEO of OIG. The note is dated June 29, 2018.

70. On March 7, 2019, Defendant Duran met with Prospective Pool Participant #1 at Oasis’s offices in Longboat Key. Prospective Pool Participant #1 explained he was interested in investing a large sum in the Oasis Pools. In response, Defendant Duran stated the following:

- a) when pool participants invest money in the Oasis Pools, their funds will be “at play” trading forex immediately;
- b) the Oasis Pools paid a minimum 12% annual return from forex trading, but pool participants could earn extra if the Oasis Pools made a higher return trading forex;
- c) the Oasis Pools made a 21% return trading forex in 2018, and all pool participants earned more than 12% in 2018;
- d) the Oasis Pools have never had a losing year, and pool participants could never lose money trading in the Oasis Pools;
- e) pool participants have the option to withdraw their trading profits immediately or the profits automatically get rolled into their principal investment;
- f) the Oasis Pools’ trading returns were wired to pool participants at 7:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday;

- g) pool participants are called lenders to avoid investment in the Oasis Pools being called a security;
- h) DaCorta was not earning a big salary from Oasis or the Oasis Pools because he makes what he trades and “we all eat from the same pot;”
- i) all Oasis fees and expenses are paid from the Oasis “house” side and not from pool participants’ investments in the Oasis Pools; and
- j) pool participants’ funds would be used only to trade forex and would not be used to invest in real estate, though $15 to $16 million of real estate owned by Oasis is collateral for the pool participants’ promissory notes.

71. That same day, Duran sent Prospective Pool Participant #1 an email from fduran@oasisig.com with a link to open an account at OIG located at the web address <https://www.oasisigltd.com>. When Prospective Pool Participant #1 clicked on the link there were two documents to review and approve: a “Promissory Note and Loan Agreement” and “Agreement and Risk Disclosures.” The “Agreement and Risk Disclosures” document stated, among other things:

- a) OIG provided no collateral to the Lender in connection with any money loaned to OIG;
- b) OIG could use the funds loaned to it by pool participants for any purpose whatsoever and could transfer the funds to other OIG accounts; and
- c) OIG could invest money loaned to it by the pool participant in forex or spot metal trading, which the Agreement and Risk Disclosures noted is highly speculative and suitable for only certain investors.

72. On March 22, 2019, Defendant Duran had a telephone call with Prospective Pool Participant #1, who indicated he was concerned about the “Agreement and Risk Disclosures” document. Duran responded to Prospective Pool Participant #1’s concerns about the “Agreement and Risk Disclosures” document by assuring him that:

- a) the document was not binding and by clicking “agree” he was only acknowledging that he read the document;
- b) his funds would only be invested in forex;
- c) his funds would not be used to purchase real estate;
- d) his funds could never depreciate;
- e) he would receive a guaranteed 12% annual return even if the Oasis Pools did not earn that much, because OIG makes up the difference;
- f) pool participants’ returns were from forex trading profits;
- g) OIG paid fees, salaries, and expenses and purchased real estate and precious metal from “house” money, which was 75% of any returns the Oasis Pools made above 12%;
- h) OIG purchased real estate and precious metals to shore up its strength and protect investors;
- i) OIG owned enough gold that even if the economy turned down, no one would miss a beat; and
- j) Duran’s investment in the Oasis Pools, which he made over two years ago, was doing very well.

73. Defendants DaCorta’s, Montie’s, Duran’s, and Haas’s representations were false because, as described further below, Defendants did not use all of pool participants’ funds to engage in forex trading and instead misappropriated the majority of pool funds—over $47 million—to make Ponzi payments and for unauthorized personal and business expenses, including real estate and luxury car purchases, tuition payments, and investments in other, non-forex business ventures.

74. Defendants’ representations about the profitability of the Oasis Pools were false. DaCorta lost all of the pool funds deposited into the Oasis Pools’ forex accounts through poor trading. The Oasis Pools’ actual trading returns in 2017 were not 22%, but negative 45%. The Oasis Pools' actual trading returns in 2018 were not 21%, but negative 96%.

75. Defendants' representations regarding the risk associated with the Oasis Pools were false. Investment in the Oasis Pools was not riskless. The forex trades in the Oasis accounts had a 100:1 leverage ratio and carried a high degree of risk. In fact, the Oasis Pools could rapidly lose all the funds deposited into the forex accounts and lose more than what was initially deposited.

76. Defendants' representations about Oasis having over $100 million under management were false. Although Defendants may have received as much as $100 million from pool participants during the life of the scheme, very little of those funds were actively traded by DaCorta, and even those funds that were traded were lost by DaCorta.

77. Defendants' statements that pool participants' investments were backed-up by $15 to $16 million in real estate owned by OIG were false because OIG did not own $15 to $16 million in real estate.

78. DaCorta made knowing material misrepresentations and omissions about his trading history, the Oasis Pools' profitability, the risk of loss associated with the Oasis Pools and forex trading, that pool funds would be used only to trade forex, and that Oasis had $120 million under management because, as discussed below, he knew he was subject to an NFA ban, losing money trading forex, and misappropriating pool funds.

79. It was highly unreasonable for Montie, Haas, and Duran to represent that the Oasis Pools made a minimum 12% return with little to no risk when they knew Oasis's trading results were not audited, and they did not verify the legitimacy of these claims.

80. It was highly unreasonable for Montie, Haas, and Duran to represent, and to acquiesce to DaCorta's and others' representations, that the Oasis Pools and trading forex had limited risk because trading forex leveraged at 100:1 is risky; and Montie, Haas, and Duran did not verify the legitimacy of this claim.

81. It was highly unreasonable for Montie to acquiesce to statements DaCorta made in his presence that investing in the Oasis Pools was as safe as having money in a bank account because trading forex leveraged at 100:1 is far more risky than having money in an insured bank account, and Montie did not verify the legitimacy of this claim.

82. Montie and Duran knowingly misrepresented or were highly unreasonable in representing that pool funds were being invested only in forex when they knew that Oasis was making non-forex investments and they did not verify that Oasis's non-forex investments were made with trading profits.

83. Haas knowingly misrepresented that pool funds were being invested only in forex because, as described below, Haas was misappropriating pool funds from Satellite Holdings accounts.

84. It was highly unreasonable for Montie, Haas, and Duran to represent that Oasis and its principals were trustworthy and financially successful when neither Oasis Management nor OIG kept regular books and records or prepared financial statements.

85. Duran made knowing misrepresentations that he invested in the Oasis Pools and was watching his money grow because Duran never invested in the Oasis Pools.

86. Montie knowingly misrepresented that he could get a pool participant's funds out of Oasis because he had log-ins to the Oasis bank accounts when he was not a signatory to and did not have log-ins to any Oasis bank accounts.

87. It was highly unreasonable for Montie to solicit others to invest their IRAs in the Oasis Pools when he was unaware of IRS requirements for IRAs.

88. It was highly unreasonable for Montie, Haas, and Duran to solicit U.S. residents for the Oasis Pools when they knew that OIG's website states that OIG was not offering services or products to U.S. persons.

89. Defendants' misrepresentations and omissions to pool participants operated as a fraud on pool participants.

90. In soliciting pool participants for the Oasis Pools, Defendants made no attempt to determine if they were eligible contract participants ("ECPs") as defined in Section 1a(18) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(18) (2012)—i.e., individuals with $10,000,000 invested on a discretionary basis—and upon information and belief many, if not all, of the pool participants are not ECPs.

E. Misappropriation of Pool Funds

91. During the Relevant Period, pool participants sent checks and wired funds for investments in the Oasis Pools to one or more of the following bank accounts:

| Account | Pool Funds Received |
|---|----------------------------|
| OM Accounts at Bank #1 (as of February 28, 2019) | $24,208,396.74 |
| Satellite Holdings Accounts at Bank #1 (as of March 8, 2019) | $14,373,770.83 |

| Account | Pool Funds Received |
|--|----------------------------|
| Fundadministration/Mainstream Accounts at Bank #1 and Bank #5 (as of March 8, 2019) | $36,534,648.64 |
| Total Pool Funds Received | $75,116,816.21 |

92. DaCorta controlled and was the signatory on OM Accounts, Haas controlled and was the signatory on the Satellite Holdings Accounts; and Anile controlled the Funadministration/Mainstream Accounts.

93. Instead of using all or substantially all of pool participants' funds for forex trading, as promised, Defendants DaCorta, Anile, and Haas knowingly misappropriated the majority of pool participants' funds from the OM, Mainstream/Fundadministration, and Satellite Holdings accounts as follows:

| Use of Pool Funds | Amount |
|--|-----------------|
| Ponzi Payments | $28,944,355.27 |
| Real estate purchases and maintenance or improvements to real estate including, but not limited to, the Oasis office building and residences for Defendants DaCorta, Anile, and Duran. This category includes transfers to Relief Defendants 444 Gulf of Mexico, 4064 Founders Club, 6922 Lacantera, and 13318 Lost Key Place. | $7,803,932.04 |
| Personal expenses, including but not limited to, private plane charters, exotic vacations, sports tickets, pet supplies, loans to family members, and college and study abroad tuition. | $6,981,839.06 |
| Non-forex business expenses and business ventures owned by Defendants, including but not limited to, transfers to Relief Defendants Bowling Green, Roar of the Lion, Lagoon, and 4Oaks. | $3,332,861.44 |

| Use of Pool Funds | Amount |

94. DaCorta's, Anile's, and Haas's misappropriation of pool funds operated as a fraud on pool participants.

95. As of February 28, 2019, only approximately $7.1 million remained in the Mainstream Accounts, $2.7 million remained in the OM accounts, and $240,000 remained in the Satellite Holdings accounts.

F. False Account Statements to Pool Participants

96. Throughout the Relevant Period, pool participants had access to online account statements generated by OIG at Defendant DaCorta's direction. Pool participants accessed their account statements in the "back office" section of the Oasis website.

97. These account statements purport to provide, among other things: (1) the pool participants' balance at the beginning of each month; (2) pool participants' daily returns earned in an amount totaling 1% per month, which purports to reflect the amount of interest pool participants were earning each day from the Oasis Pools; (3) pool participants' daily special interest returns at 25% of transaction fees, which purports to reflect the amount of extra interest pool participants were earning each day from either referral arrangements or the Oasis Pools' generating more than the guaranteed 12% annual return; and (4) pool participants' "additional loans," which purports to reflect returns that were earned but not withdrawn and therefore rolled into the pool participants' "principal."

98. These account statements were false because the Oasis Pools were losing money. Thus, any returns or increased principal reflected on pool participants' account statements, which were purportedly based on forex trading in the Oasis Pools, were a complete fiction.

99. These false account statements concealed the Oasis Pools' trading losses and Defendants' misappropriation of pool funds and operated as a fraud on pool participants.

100. DaCorta knew these account statements were false because he knew the Oasis Pools were not profitable and that pool funds had been misappropriated.

G. Defendants Failed To Register with the Commission

101. During the Relevant Period, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings, by and through their officers, employees or agents, used the mails, electronic mails, wire transfers, websites, and other means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce, to solicit pool participants and prospective pool participants and to receive property from pool participants.

102. During the Relevant Period, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings acted as CPOs of the Oasis Pools because they were entities engaging in a business that is of the nature of a commodity pool and, in connection with that business, solicited and/or accepted pool funds for a pooled investment vehicle that is not an ECP and that engages in transactions described in Section 2(c)(2)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C) (2012), other than on or subject to the rules of a designated contract market ("retail forex transactions").

103. During the Relevant Period, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings were not statutorily exempt or excluded from registration as CPOs. Moreover, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings never filed any electronic or written notice with the NFA that they were exempt or excluded from registration as CPOs, as required by Regulations 4.5(c) and 4.13(b)(1).

104. During the Relevant Period, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings were never registered with the Commission as CPOs.

105. During the Relevant Period, DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas acted as APs of CPOs because they solicited funds or property for participation in a pooled investment vehicle that is not an ECP and that engages in retail forex transactions.

106. During the Relevant Period, DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were never registered with the Commission as APs of CPOs.

H. Receipt and Commingling of Pool Funds

107. Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings, while acting as CPOs of the Oasis Pools, received pool funds that were not in the name of the Oasis Pools and commingled pool funds with non-pool property by depositing pool funds into the bank accounts of OM, Satellite Holdings, Fundadministration, and Mainstream, rather than separate bank accounts specifically designated for the Oasis Pools.

108. While acting as CPOs of the Oasis Pools, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings commingled pool funds with non-pool property by transferring pool funds from the OM, Satellite Holdings, Fundadministration, and Mainstream bank accounts into other accounts holding non-pool funds.

I. Failure To Provide Pool Disclosures and Other Relevant Documents

109. At or near the time of investment, Defendants provided potential pool participants with a document titled “Agreement and Risk Disclosures,” along with a “Promissory Note and Loan Agreement.”

110. The Agreement and Risk Disclosures purported to alert investors to the risks associated with investing in forex, but at the same time, the Promissory Note and Loan Agreement guarantees pool participants a 12% annual return.

111. Defendants’ Agreement and Risk Disclosures did not include the required cautionary statement to investors or a full and complete risk disclosure, including the risks involved in foreign futures contracts and retail forex trading.

112. In addition to Defendants’ inadequate cautionary statements and risk disclosures, Defendants also failed to provide pool participants with additional required information, including but not limited to, the fees and expenses incurred by the Oasis Pools, past performance disclosures, and a statement that the CPO is required to provide all pool participants with monthly or quarterly account statements, as well as an annual report containing financial statements certified by an independent public accountant.

J. Controlling Person Liability

113. During the Relevant Period, DaCorta was a controlling person of OIG. He co-founded and was a principal shareholder, director, president, chief executive officer, and chief investment officer of OIG. DaCorta signed promissory notes provided to pool participants guaranteeing a minimum 12% return from the Oasis Pools. According to OIG’s website, DaCorta is responsible for all investment decisions, trading execution, services, sales, clearing and operations of OIG. DaCorta did not act in good faith or knowingly induced OIG's fraudulent acts.

114. During the Relevant Period, DaCorta was also a controlling person for OM. He opened bank accounts for OM in November 2011 and is the sole signatory on these accounts. DaCorta did not act in good faith or knowingly induced OM's fraudulent acts.

115. During the Relevant Period, Defendant Anile was a controlling person of OIG. He co-founded and was a principal shareholder, director, and president of OIG. According to Oasis's website, Anile has responsibility for staffing, guiding, and managing OIG's vision, mission, strategic plan, and direction. Additionally, Anile opened trading accounts for the Oasis Pools and controlled OIG bank accounts. Anile assisted in facilitating real estate purchases with pool funds and in diverting pool funds from OIG to other business entities and Relief Defendants. Anile did not act in good faith or knowingly induced OIG's fraudulent acts.

116. During the Relevant Period, Defendant Montie was a controlling person of OIG. He co-founded and was an OIG principal shareholder, director and vice president. He was OIG's executive director of sales. Montie solicits prospective pool participants and introduces them to OIG and/or DaCorta. Montie did not act in good faith or knowingly induced OIG's fraudulent acts.

117. Throughout the Relevant Period, Defendant Haas was a controlling person of Defendant Satellite Holdings. Haas is the director of Satellite, and he opened and was the sole signatory on bank accounts in the name of Satellite Holdings, which received funds from pool participants. Haas was in charge of assisting pool participants who wished to invest their IRAs and/or retirement funds in the Oasis Pools. He signed promissory notes guaranteeing pool participants a 12% annual return from the Oasis Pools. Haas did not act in good faith or knowingly induced Satellite Holding's fraudulent acts.

17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b) (2018).

123. By reason of the conduct described above, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise), by and through their officers, employees and

127. The foregoing acts, omissions, and failures occurred within the scope of the individual defendants' employment or office with OIG, OM, and/or Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise). Therefore, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings are liable for their acts, omissions, and failures in violation of 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2)(A)-(C) and 17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b)(1)-(3), pursuant to Section 2(a)(1)(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(a)(1)(B) (2012), and Regulation 1.2, 17 C.F.R. § 1.2 (2018).

128. Defendants DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas control OIG, OM, and/or Satellite Holdings, directly or indirectly, and did not act in good faith or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, OIG's, OM's, and Satellite Holdings' conduct alleged in this Count. Therefore, under 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2012), DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas are liable for OIG's, OM's, and Satellite Holdings' violations of 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2)(A)-(C) and 17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b)(1)-(3).

129. Each misrepresentation, omission of material fact, false statement, and misappropriation, including but not limited to those specifically alleged herein, is alleged as a separate and distinct violation of Section 4b(a)(2)(A)-(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2)(A)-(C) and 17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b)(1)-(3).

COUNT TWO

Violation of Section 4o(1)(A)-(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1)(A)-(B) (Fraud and Deceit by CPOs and APs of CPOs)

(All Defendants)

130. Paragraphs 1 through 117 are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

131. Section 1a(11) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(11) (2012), defines a CPO, in relevant part, as any person:

engaged in a business that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and who, in connection therewith, solicits, accepts, or receives from others, funds, securities, or property, either directly or through capital contributions, the sale of stock or other forms of securities, or otherwise, for the purpose of trading in commodity interests, including any—

- (I) commodity for future delivery, security futures product, or swap; [or]
- (II) agreement, contract, or transaction described in [S]ection 2(c)(2)(C)(i) [of the Act] or [S]ection 2(c)(2)(D)(i) [of the Act].

132. Pursuant to Regulation 5.1(d)(1), 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(1) (2018), and subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, any person who operates or solicits funds, securities, or property for a pooled investment vehicle and engages in retail forex transactions is defined as a retail forex CPO.

133. Pursuant to Section 2(c)(2)(C)(ii)(I) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C)(ii)(I) (2012), “[a]greements, contracts, or transactions” in retail forex and accounts or pooled investment vehicles “shall be subject to . . . section[] 6o [of the Act],” except in circumstances not relevant here.

134. During the Relevant Period, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) engaged in a business, for compensation or profit, that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and in connection therewith, solicited, accepted, or received from others, funds, securities, or property, either directly or through capital contributions, the sale of stock or other forms of securities, or otherwise, for the purpose of trading in commodity interests, including in relevant part transactions in futures and forex; therefore, Defendants, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings acted as a CPO, as defined by 7 U.S.C. § 1a(11).

135. During the Relevant Period, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) were not registered with the Commission as CPOs.

136. Regulation 1.3, 17 C.F.R. § 1.3 (2018), defines an AP of a CPO as any natural person associated with a CPO as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions), in any capacity which involves (i) the solicitation of funds, securities, or property for a participation in a commodity pool or (ii) the supervision of any person or persons so engaged[.]

137. Pursuant to 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(2), any person associated with a CPO “as a partner, officer, employee, consultant or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions), in any capacity which involves: (i) [t]he solicitation of funds, securities, or property for a participation in a pooled vehicle; or (ii) [t]he supervision of any person or persons so engaged” is an AP of a retail forex CPO.

138. During the Relevant Period, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were associated with a CPO as a partner, officer, employee or consultant, or agent in a capacity that involved the solicitation of funds, securities, or property for participation in a commodity pool or the supervision of any person or persons so engaged. Therefore, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were APs of a CPO as defined by 17 C.F.R. § 1.3.

139. During the Relevant Period, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were not registered with the Commission as APs of a CPO.

140. Section 4o(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1) (2012), prohibits CPOs and APs of CPOs, whether registered with the Commission or not, by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, directly or indirectly, from employing devices, schemes or artifices to defraud any client or participant or prospective client or participant, or engaging in transactions, practices, or courses of business which operate as a fraud or deceit upon any client or participant or prospective client or participant.

141. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OM, OIG, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) and Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas, through use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce: (1) knowingly or recklessly employed devices, schemes or artifices to defraud pool participants and prospective pool participants, or (2) engaged in transactions, practices, or courses of business which operated as a fraud or deceit upon pool participants or prospective pool participants.

142. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OM, OIG, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) and Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas violated 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1).

143. The foregoing acts, omissions, and failures occurred within the scope of the individual defendants' employment or office with OIG, OM, or Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise). Therefore, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) are liable for their acts, omissions, and failures in violation of 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1).

144. Defendants DaCorta, Anile, Montie and Haas control OIG, OM, and/or Satellite Holdings, directly or indirectly, and did not act in good faith or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, OIG's, OM's and Satellite Holdings's conduct alleged in this Count. Therefore, under 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2012), DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas are liable for OIG's, OM's and Satellite Holdings's violations of 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1).

145. Each misrepresentation, omission of material fact, and misappropriation, including but not limited to those specifically alleged herein, is alleged as a separate and distinct violation of 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1).

and Regulation 5.3(a)(2), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)
(Failure To Register as a CPO and Retail Forex CPO and AP of a CPO and AP of Retail Forex CPO)

(All Defendants)

146. Paragraphs 1 through 117 are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

147. Subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, Section 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6m(1) (2012), states that it shall be “unlawful for any . . . [CPO], unless registered under this chapter, to make use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce in connection with his business as such . . . [CPO].”

148. Subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, Section 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(cc) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(cc) (2012), states that a person, unless registered in such capacity as the Commission by rule, regulation, or order shall determine and a member of a futures association registered under section 17, shall not . . .

(cc) operate or solicit funds, securities, or property for any pooled investment vehicle that is not an eligible contract participant in connection with [retail forex contracts, agreements, or transactions].

149. For the purposes of retail forex transactions, a CPO is defined in Regulation 5.1(d)(1), 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(1) (2018), as any person who operates or solicits funds, securities, or property for a pooled investment vehicle that is not an ECP, as defined in Section 1a(18) of the Act, 17 U.S.C. § 1a(18) (2012), and who engages in retail forex transactions.

150. Except in circumstances not relevant here, Regulation 5.3(a)(2)(i), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(i) (2018), requires those that meet the definition of a retail forex CPO under 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d) to register as a CPO with the Commission.

151. Subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, Section 4k(2) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6k(2) (2012), states that it shall be unlawful for any person to be associated with a [CPO] as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent . . . in any capacity that involves

- (i) the solicitation of funds, securities, or property for a participation in a commodity pool or
- (ii) the supervision of any person or persons so engaged, unless such person is registered with the Commission under this chapter as an [AP] of such [CPO]

152. For the purposes of retail forex transaction, an AP of a CPO is defined in 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(2) as any natural person associated with a retail forex CPO as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions) in any capacity that involves soliciting funds, securities or property for participation in a pooled investment vehicle or supervising persons so engaged.

153. Except in certain circumstances not relevant here, 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(ii), requires those that meet the definition of an AP of a retail forex CPO under 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d) to register as an AP of a CPO with the Commission.

154. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) engaged in a business, for compensation or profit, that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and in connection therewith, solicited, accepted, or received from others, funds, securities, or property, either directly or through capital contributions, the sale of stock or other forms of securities, or otherwise, for the purpose of trading in commodity interests, including retail forex transactions; therefore, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings acted as CPOs, as defined by 7 U.S.C. § 1a(11).

155. Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise), while using the mails or means of interstate commerce in connection with their business as a CPO, were not registered with the Commission as a CPO.

156. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) acted as unregistered CPOs in violation of 7 U.S.C. § 6m(1).

157. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) solicited funds, securities, or property for a pooled investment vehicle from investors who were not ECPs, as defined by 7 U.S.C. § 1a(18), for the purpose of trading in retail forex transactions (as defined by 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(m)); thus, OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) acted as CPOs engaged in retail forex transactions as defined by 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(1).

158. Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) were not registered with the Commission as CPOs engaged in retail forex transactions, and therefore violated 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(cc) and 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(i).

159. During the Relevant Period, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas associated with a retail forex CPO (as defined in 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)) as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions)), in a capacity that involved the solicitation of funds, securities, or property for a participation in a commodity pool or the supervision of persons so engaged; therefore, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas acted as APs of CPOs as defined by 17 C.F.R. § 1.3.

160. During the Relevant Period, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were not registered with the Commission as APs of a CPO; thus, Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas acted as unregistered APs of CPOs in violation of 7 U.S.C. § 6k(2).

162. Defendants DaCorta, Montie, Duran, and Haas were not registered as APs of a CPO engaged in retail forex transactions, and therefore violated 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(ii).

163. Defendants DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas control OIG, OM, and/or Satellite Holdings, directly or indirectly, and did not act in good faith or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, OIG's, OM's and Satellite Holdings's conduct alleged in this Count. Therefore, under Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2012), DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas are liable for OIG's, OM's, and Satellite Holdings's violations of 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(cc) and 6m(1) and 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(i).

164. Each instance that Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings acted as a CPO but failed to register with the Commission as such is alleged as a separate and distinct violation.

(Defendants OIG, OM, Satellite Holdings, DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas)

166. Paragraphs 1 through 117 are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

167. Regulation 5.4, 17 C.F.R. § 5.4 (2018), states that Part 4 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 4 (2018), applies to any person required to register as a CPO pursuant to Part 5 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 5 (2018), relating to forex transactions.

168. Regulation 4.20(b), 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b) (2018), prohibits CPOs, whether registered or not, from receiving pool participants' funds in any name other than that of the pool.

169. 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(c) (2018), prohibits a CPO, whether registered or not, from commingling the property of any pool it operates with the property of any other person.

170. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise), while acting as CPOs for the Oasis Pools, failed to receive to pool participants' funds in the names of the Oasis Pools and commingled the property of the Oasis Pools with property of Defendants or others.

171. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) violated 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b)-(c).

173. Each act of improperly receiving pool participants' funds and commingling the property of the Oasis Pools with non-pool property, including but not limited to those specifically alleged herein, is alleged as a separate and distinct violation of 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b)-(c).

(Defendants OIG, OM, Satellite Holdings, DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas)

174. Paragraphs 1 through 117 are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

175. Regulation 5.4, 17 C.F.R. § 5.4 (2018), states that Part 4 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 4 (2018), applies to any person required to register as a CPO pursuant to Part 5 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 5 (2018), relating to forex transactions.

each commodity pool operator registered or required to be registered under the Act must deliver or cause to be delivered to a prospective participant in a pool that it operates or intends to operate a Disclosure Document for the pool prepared in accordance with §§ 4.24 and 4.25 by no later than the time it delivers to the prospective participant a subscription agreement for the pool

177. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants OIG, OM, and Satellite Holdings (acting as a common enterprise) failed to provide to prospective pool participants with pool disclosure documents in the form specified in Regulations 4.24 and 4.25, 17 C.F.R. §§ 4.24, 4.25 (2018).

179. Defendants DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas control OIG, OM, and/or Satellite Holdings, directly or indirectly, and did not act in good faith or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, OIG's, OM's, and Satellite Holdings' conduct alleged in this Count. Therefore, under Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2012), DaCorta, Anile, Montie, and Haas are liable for OIG's, OM's, and Satellite Holdings's violations of 17 C.F.R. § 4.21.

180. Each failure to furnish the required disclosure documents to prospective pool participants and pool participants, including but not limited to those specifically alleged herein, is alleged as a separate and distinct violation of 17 C.F.R. § 4.21.

Receivership: (1) a copy of the Amended Complaint; and (2) a copy of the Consolidated Receivership Order, appointing and/or reappointing the Receiver. For reference, I have also enclosed a partial copy of the docket sheet, showing all parties and their counsel. Finally, I have enclosed a check in the amount of $47.00 for any filing fee.

The Amended Complaint and Consolidated Receivership Order are to be filed as a miscellaneous action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 754. Although I have enclosed a check in the amount of $47.00, it my understanding that because the Commodity Futures Trading Commission is a federal government entity and secured the appointment of the Receiver, the filing fee may be waived. Accordingly, I ask that you waive the filing fee and return the enclosed check.

Aside from docketing the Amended Complaint and Consolidated Receivership Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 754, neither the Clerk nor the Court need take any additional action. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

DEFENDANT, JOSEPH MARTINI, JR.'S ANSWERS TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Pursuant to Rule 33, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant, Joseph Martini, Jr. ("Mr. Martini, Jr."), hereby responds as follow's to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories.

ANSWERS

INTERROGATORY 1: For each transfer of money (i) that Defendant received from a Receivership Entity or A Person Associated With A Receivership Entity and (ii) that is not identified in the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case, please identify the amount of such transfer, the payor of such transfer, the date on which the transfer was received, and the date on which the deposit of the transfer cleared.

ANSWER: In 2009, Michael J. DaCorta ("Mr. DaCorta") facilitated a payment of $15,000.00 from Strata Capital, Inc. to Joseph Martini, Jr. ("Mr. Martini, Jr."). Mr. Martini, Jr. does not know the precise date the transfer was received nor the date on which the deposit of the transfer cleared.

INTERROGATORY 2: For each transfer listed in the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case or identified in response to Interrogatory 1, please identify the account in which the transferred money was deposited, providing the name of the financial institution holding each such account, the complete name on the account, and the number of the account; and if any such transfer was not deposited into an account, please identify the subsequent steps taken with respect to such transfer.

ANSWER:

- Unknown date in 2009 - $15,000 – unknown financial institution, account name, and account number.
- 07/16/2013 - $25,000 – Chase Bank, Joseph T. Martini, Jr or Sharon E. Martini, XXXXXX6519¹
- 11/25/2015 - $10,000 – Chase Bank, Joseph T. Martini, XXXXXX7573
- 02/09/2016 - $10,000 – Chase Bank, Joseph T. Martini, XXXXXX7573
- 07/18/2016 - $10,000 – Chase Bank, Joseph T. Martini, XXXXXX7573
- 09/26/2016 - $145,000 – Chase Bank, Joseph T. Martini, XXXXXX7573

INTERROGATORY 3: Please identify each transfer listed in the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case that Defendant contends was not received by Defendant or by a person acting under Defendant's control or on behalf of Defendant.

ANSWER: None.

INTERROGATORY 4: For each transfer identified in the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case or identified in response to Interrogatory 1, please identify (i) the specific purpose for Defendant's receipt of that transfer, (ii) the value provided to a Receivership Entity in exchange for that transfer, and (iii) the person providing that value. The term "value" as used in this interrogatory has the same definition as used in connection with Florida Statutes Sections 726.101 et seq.

ANSWER: The $15,000.00 transferred to Mr. Martini, Jr. in 2009, as identified in response to Interrogatory 1, constituted earnings stemming from Mr. Martini, Jr.'s $200,000.00 investment in Strata Capital.

¹ Complete account numbers, to the extent necessary, will be provided upon execution of an appropriate confidentiality stipulation/agreement.

The transfers identified on Page 64 of Exhibit A to the operative complaint, which total $200,000.00, reflect the return of $200,000.00 in principal for investments made by Mr. Martini, Jr. Specifically, in 2009, Mr. Martini, Jr. invested $200,000.00 Strata Capital through Mr. DaCorta and based on Mr. DaCorta's representations that the investment would be profitable. As proof of and in return for his investment, Mr. Martini, Jr. was issued Preferred Stock shares in Strata Capital, Inc. In roughly 2013, Mr. Martini, Jr.'s shares of Strata Capital were converted into $200,000.00 worth of "founders shares" in Oasis International Group, Ltd. ("OIG"). The transfers on 07/16/2013, 11/25/2015, 02/09/2016, and 07/18/2016 reflect the partial return of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s original principal investment. On or about September 16, 2016, after requesting the return of his principal investment for a number of years, Mr. Martini, Jr. executed a Stock Purchase Agreement, Surrender Letter, and Share Transfer Form in which he sold, surrendered, or otherwise transferred his shares in OIG back to OIG. The final transfer on 09/26/2016, reflects a return of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s remaining principal investment and consideration for the sale/transfer/surrender of his shares of OIG.

INTERROGATORY 5: Please describe the circumstances of your initial introduction to and all meetings or other communications with any Receivership Entity or Person Associated With A Receivership Entity, including but not limited to dates, locations, and matters discussed, and if you were referred to the Receivership Entity or Person Associated With A Receivership Entity, please identify the name, address, and telephone number of the person making the referral and that person's relationship to you.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr. objects on the grounds of breadth and burdensomeness, as this response would require Mr. Martini, Jr. to recall and recount more than seven years of communications with Receivership Entities or Persons Associated With A Receivership Entities. Subject to, and without waiving, these objections, in 2009, Co-Defendant, Joseph Martini, Sr. ("Mr. Martini, Sr."), 108 Heritage Hills, Unit B, Somers, NY 10589, 914-342-3903, introduced Mr. Martini, Jr. to Mr. DaCorta. Mr. Martini, Jr., Mr. Martini, Sr., and Mr. DaCorta initially met in person to discuss an investment opportunity in Strata Capital. In the years that followed, Mr. Martini, Jr. met with Mr. DaCorta in person on one or two additional occasions. Additionally, Mr. Martini, Jr. communicated with Mr. DaCorta by telephone, text, and email. All of their communications concerned Mr. Martini, Jr.'s investment in Strata Capital and OIG, the subsequent issuance of shares of OIG, the sale of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s shares of OIG, and the return of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s principal investment. For additional specificity, see email communications to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production. Please note that Mr. Martini, Sr. is represented by Gray

Robinson, PA and all communications to Mr. Martini, Sr. should be addressed to his counsel.

INTERROGATORY 6: Please identify each person with whom you discussed or communicated about an actual or potential investment in a Receivership Entity and describe the information exchanged with such person and the date of such exchange of information.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr. objects to this request as overbroad and unduly burdensome, as it would require Mr. Martini, Jr. to recall and recount each and every communication concerning his investment over the course of a more than seven year period. Further, Mr. Martini, Jr. Objects to the extent this Interrogatory requests information protected by attorney-client privilege or the work-product doctrine. Subject to, and without waiving, these objections, Mr. Martini, Jr. communicated with his father, Mr. Martini, Sr., and Michael DaCorta in-person, by telephone, and by email regarding Mr. Martini, Jr.'s investment in Strata Capital and OIG, the subsequent issuance of shares of OIG, the sale of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s shares of OIG, and the return of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s principal investment.

INTERROGATORY 7: Please identify all documents provided to you by any Receivership Entity or Person Associated With A Receivership Entity, including prospectuses, marketing materials, contracts, investment summaries, correspondence, and emails, and each person with possession, custody, or control of each such document.

ANSWER: See documents to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production. Mr. Martini, Jr. and Mr. Martini, Sr., as well as their counsel, are the only people with possession, custody, or control of each such document.

INTERROGATORY 8: Please identify all documents relating to the transfers listed on the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case and each person who has custody, control, or possession of each such document.

ANSWER: See documents to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production. Mr. Martini, Jr. and Mr. Martini, Sr., as well as their counsel, and any financial institutions referenced in response to any of the Interrogatories are the only people or entities with possession, custody, or control of each such document.

INTERROGATORY 9: Please describe all communications, including any verbal representations, made by any Person Associated With A Receivership Entity relating to the transfers listed on the Exhibit(s) to the operative complaint in this case or provided in response to Interrogatory 1.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr. objects to this request as overbroad and unduly burdensome, as it would require Mr. Martini, Jr. to recall and recount each and every communication concerning his investment over the course of a more than seven years.

Subject to, and without waiving, these objections, with regards to the transfer identified in Interrogatory 1, Mr. DaCorta represented that this payment represented earning stemming from Mr. Martini, Jr.'s initial $200,000.00 investment in Strata Capital.

With regards to all other transfers, Mr. DaCorta represented that they constituted the return of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s $200,000 initial investment in Strata Capital, including, without limitation, the proceeds of the sale/transfer/surrender of OIG shares to OIG, as reflected in the September 16, 2016 Stock Purchase Agreement, Surrender Letter, and Share Transfer Form, to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production.

For additional specificity, see documents to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production.

INTERROGATORY 10: Please describe with specificity all due diligence or other review or investigation you made of any other Person Associated With A Receivership Entity, or any Receivership Entity before or during your receipt of funds paid from a Receivership Entity or any Person Associated With A Receivership Entity.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr.'s procured the vast majority of his knowledge concerning Mr. DaCorta, Strata Capital, and/or any of the Receivership Entities or Persons Associated With A Receivership Entity through communications with Mr. DaCorta and Mr. Martini, Sr. In addition, Mr. Martini, Jr. performed some Google searches concerning Mr. DaCorta and the Receivership Entities.

INTERROGATORY 11: Please describe all information and documents you requested from any Person Associated With A Receivership Entity, or any Receivership Entity, including financial statements, prospectuses, marketing materials, contracts, investment summaries, or documents relating to your receipt of funds paid from a Receivership Entity or Person Associated with a Receivership Entity, and what was provided in response.

ANSWER: See documents produced or to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production. In addition, Mr. Martini, Jr. requested from Mr. DaCorta, but did not receive, a signed copy of the Subscription Agreement for his initial investment in Strata Capital.

INTERROGATORY 12: List the name and addresses of all persons who are believed or known by you, your agents, or your attorneys to have any knowledge concerning the issues and/or allegations in this lawsuit, and specify the subject matter about which each such person has knowledge.

ANSWER:

Joseph Martini, Jr.
16 Solar Ridge Rd
Trumbull, CT 06611

Joseph Martini, Sr.
108 Heritage Hills, Unit B
Somers, NY 10589

Joseph and Lynne LaVecchia

Copake, NY 12516

Michael J. DaCorta
(address unknown)

Joseph S. Anile, II
(address unknown)

Other employees or agents of the Receivership Entities (addresses unknown)

INTERROGATORY 13: State the facts upon which you base each and every affirmative defense you have asserted or intend to assert in this case. Include in your response a description of each document that supports your contentions, and each person who has knowledge of the facts and/or documents described.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr. objects to this request as overbroad and unduly burdensome as it would require the recitation of almost all facts constituting the entirety of Mr. Martini, Jr.'s defense and a description of virtually all of the documents to be produced in response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production. Further, Mr. Martini, Jr. objects to this interrogatory to the extent it is seeking the disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of its counsel or representatives, as such information is covered by the work product privilege.

INTERROGATORY 14: For each Request for Admission served on you by the Receiver for which you responded in any part with either a denial or a conditional admission, please describe in detail the reasons for your denial or conditional admission, including the facts upon which such response was based.

ANSWER: Mr. Martini, Jr. objects to this interrogatory to the extent it is seeking the disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of its counsel or representatives, as such information is covered by the work product privilege. _____ /

Qualifications and Retention

1. I hereby make this declaration on behalf of Burton W. Wiand, as Receiver for OASIS INTERNATIONAL GROUP, LTD. (“OIG”), OASIS MANAGEMENT, LLC (“Oasis Management”), and SATELLITE HOLDINGS COMPANY (“Satellite Holdings”) (collectively “Oasis Entities”).

2. I am over eighteen years of age and have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein.

3. I am a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), a Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor (CIRA), and a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE). The CIRA designation is conferred by the Association of Insolvency and restructuring Advisors after a three-part examination and a required 4,000 hours of prior qualified insolvency experience. A summary of my qualifications is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.”

4. My firm, Kapila Mukamal, LLP (“KM”), is a forensic consulting and insolvency advisory firm that was retained by the Receiver to:

- a. Review and analyze the books and records of the Oasis Entities, including the accounting records, bank and investment accounts records, and investor documents maintained by the Oasis Entities;
- b. Reconstruct the Oasis Entities’ bank records;
- c. Analyze the bank records for all bank, brokerage and trading accounts;
- d. Determine the flow of funds among the Oasis Entities, investors, insiders, and third parties;
- e. Determine whether the Oasis Entities were insolvent at the time of the transfers;
- f. Analyze the funds received by and paid to the investors of the Oasis Entities and insiders; and
- g. Render an opinion as to whether or not the scheme operated by the Oasis Entities had the attributes of a Ponzi scheme.

5. This declaration is based upon my review, investigation and analysis of the available accounting and bank records for the period from November 22, 2011 through April 15, 2019 which are further detailed in the attached Exhibit “B.”

Additional documents supporting calculations and conclusions reached are attached as Composite Exhibit “C.”

Methodology:

6. To determine the nature of the transactions of the Oasis Entities, KM prepared a detailed reconstruction of the funds received and disbursed in the Oasis Entities’ financial accounts (“Bank Reconstruction”) during the period November 22, 2011 through April 15, 2019, the date the Receiver was appointed. The Bank Reconstruction encompassed 10 accounts and over 11,000 transactions.

7. The Bank Reconstruction is a database of the details of each transaction (receipts and disbursements) that occurred in the Oasis Entities’ bank accounts and includes the following fields of information for each transaction:

- a. Bank account number reference;
- b. Transaction date;
- c. Transaction type;
- d. Transaction amount;
- e. Payee/recipient; and
- f. Ending balance.

8. In conducting the analysis, KM utilized Actionable Intelligence Technologies Inc.’s Comprehensive Financial Investigative Solution (“CFIS”), which is a computer software company that converts bank statements from financial institutions into searchable databases (“CFIS Databases”). The CFTC also provided KM with CFIS Databases that had been partially populated with data. KM verified the information on a test basis.

9. KM used the data from the CFIS Databases to populate the transactions in the Bank Reconstructions in chronological order. KM verified that the data from the CFIS Databases matched the transactions listed in the bank statements by reconciling the following items on a monthly basis:

- a. Beginning bank account balance;
- b. Total credits/receipts;
- c. Total debits/disbursements; and
- d. Ending bank account balance.

10. Where the CFIS Databases did not include a payee/recipient for each transaction, KM populated the payee/recipient information in the bank reconstruction using the bank statement support which included canceled checks, deposit slips and copies of checks deposited, and wire transfer support.

11. KM assigned each transaction in the Bank Reconstruction to a category for purposes of analyzing and summarizing the data. KM aggregated the transactions in the Bank Reconstruction by category to prepare summaries of the activity in the Oasis Entities' bank accounts.

Oasis Entities:

12. Oasis International Group Ltd. (“OIG”) - OIG is a corporation formed in the Cayman Islands by DaCorta, Anile, and Montie, who were OIG's members.

OIG acted as a commodity pool operator by soliciting, receiving, and accepting funds purportedly for trading by Oasis Global FX, Limited and Oasis Global FX, SA (“Oasis Pools”).¹

13. Oasis Management, LLC (“Oasis Management”) - Oasis Management is a Wyoming limited liability corporation formed in November 2011. Oasis Management acted as a commodity pool operator for the Oasis Pools by accepting and receiving funds from pool participants.²

14. Satellite Holdings Company (“Satellite”) - Satellite is a South Dakota corporation formed in October 2014 that acted as a commodity pool operator by soliciting, receiving, and accepting funds from pool participants for investment in the Oasis Pools. OIG, Oasis Management and Satellite are collectively referred to as the “Oasis Entities”.³

15. Relief Defendant Mainstream Fund Services, Inc (“Mainstream”) - The Oasis Entities used Mainstream as a fund administrator. Mainstream provided cash management and other services to the Oasis Entities.⁴ Mainstream controlled five bank accounts in the name of the Oasis Entities and operated on behalf of the Oasis Entities.

The Oasis Scheme:

16. The Oasis Entities acted as commodity pool operators by soliciting, receiving, and accepting funds purportedly for trading in forex.⁵ Among other things, OIG, Oasis Management, and Satellite Holdings shared the same office and employees, commingled funds, and operated under one overarching name, “Oasis.”⁶ Additionally, DaCorta and/or Anile owned and controlled OIG, Oasis Management, and the Oasis Pools. John Haas owned and controlled Satellite Holdings, but also worked for OIG.⁷

17. The Oasis Entities offered the sale of securities in the form of partnership interests and promissory notes to investors. Investors were guaranteed an annual rate of return of 12%.⁸ The Oasis Entities represented to investors that their money would be used to trade forex contracts and to generate spread income by matching trades. Investors were guaranteed that the Oasis Pools would earn substantial income and would not lose money using this investment strategy.⁹ The investors were also told that their investments were secured by $15-$16 million in real estate investments and that the Oasis Entities earned 22% returns in 2017 and 21% in 2018.¹⁰

18. Only a portion of the Oasis investor funds were used for forex trading activity and $11.4 million of the funds were transferred from the Oasis Entities to related entities and used to pay personal expenses of Insiders and paid to the Insiders directly in some cases. These personal expenses include credit card payments, automobile expenses, meals and entertainment, travel, insurance, and school tuition.

19. Between November 2011 and April 2019, the Oasis Entities had incoming funds of $88,224,322, of which $83,795,457 (95%) were from approximately 950 investors, $1,942,750 (2%) were from insiders and related parties, $823,661 (1%) was from employees and traders, and $757,669 (1%) was from other parties. Less than 1%, or $60,000, of funds received by the Oasis Entities related to trading activity. See below bank reconstruction summary.

20. In September 2013, Oasis established forex trading accounts with CFH Clearing. These accounts were closed in August 2015. In June 2015, Oasis established forex trading accounts at ATC Brokers. The CFH and the ATC Broker accounts were used by Oasis to conduct highly leveraged forex trading (“Trading Accounts”). The ATC Broker accounts remained opened until the Receiver was appointed, and the accounts were frozen in April 2019. See summary below.

21. The above referenced forex trading activity resulted in losses of approximately $16 million or 75%¹¹ of the original amount invested in the Trading Accounts.

22. Although approximately $83.8 million was raised from investors, only $22.9 million or 27%, was actually invested in forex trading which only resulted in losses and did not generate the returns necessary to pay the promised investor returns. Instead, as is consistent with all Ponzi schemes, new investor funds were used to pay earlier investors and money was also funneled out of the scheme for the benefit of insiders. Ultimately, of approximately $84 million collected from ¹¹ The loss percentage as of April 18, 2019 is calculated as cumulative losses of $15.9 million as a percentage of deposits into the Trading Accounts of $23.3 million reduced by withdrawals and the ending balance in the account as of April 18, 2019 ($21.1 million) which equates to 75%.

investors, only $30.4 million were paid to investors which is a net investor loss of at least $53.4 million.

23. Based on my review and analysis as outlined above, between November 2011 and April 2019, the Oasis Entities demonstrated the following characteristics of a Ponzi scheme:

- a. The Oasis Entities were dependent on continued infusion of outside investor money;
- b. The investor money was not used for the stated purpose;
- c. The investor money was used to pay the returns promised to earlier investors; and
- d. The Oasis Entities did not generate sufficient profits to pay the promised returns to investors.

24. I analyzed the Oasis Entities' balance sheets for the period December 31, 2012 through December 31, 2018 and determined that the Oasis Entities were insolvent wherein, the fair value of the liabilities exceeded the fair value of the assets.

25. The Remaining Defendants, Offer Attia, Timothy Hunte DBA KAATT Distribution, Joseph Martini, Jr., and David Wilkerson received transfers from the Oasis Entities of purported trading profits, principal redemptions, and/or referral fees in an amount that exceeded the amount they invested. The referenced transfers are set forth in the attached Composite Exhibit "D."

26. The False Profits paid by the Oasis Entities to the Remaining Defendants are summarized below:

- a. Defendant Attia - $14,247.29
- b. Defendant KAATT Distribution - $52,226.68
- c. Defendant Martini Jr. - $200,000.00
- d. Defendant Wilkerson - $15,631.78

27. I reserve the opportunity to revise this Declaration based on additional information that may become available.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated May 7, 2021.
