

CONSENT ORDER FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION, CIVIL MONETARY PENALTY AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANT JOSEPH S. ANILE, II

I. INTRODUCTION

On April 15, 2019, Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) filed its initial complaint¹ (Dkt. 1) against Defendants Oasis International Group, Limited (“OIG”); Oasis Management, LLC (“OM”); Satellite Holdings Company (“SHC”); Michael J. DaCorta; Joseph S. Anile, II; Raymond P. Montie, III; Francisco “Frank” L. Duran; and John J. Haas (collectively, “Defendants”), seeking injunctive and other equitable relief, as well as the imposition of civil penalties, for violations of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. §§ 1–26, and the Commission’s Regulations (“Regulations”) promulgated thereunder, 17 C.F.R. pts. 1–190 (2022). The Complaint alleged that from at least mid-April 2014 until the CFTC filed its initial complaint on April 15, 2019 (the “Relevant Period”), Defendants engaged in a fraudulent scheme to solicit participation in commodity pools trading retail foreign currency, among other violations. The Court entered an ex parte statutory restraining order against Defendants on April 15, 2019 (Dkt. 7), and then Consent Orders for Preliminary Injunction and Other Equitable Relief against Defendants OIG, OM, DaCorta, and Anile on April 30, 2019 (Dkt. 43), and against

Defendants Duran, Haas and SHC, and Montie on July 11, 2019 (Dkts. 174, 175, 176, respectively).

The CFTC requested that a receiver be appointed to this matter in order to, among other things, marshal assets held by Defendants as a result of their involvement in the fraudulent scheme (the “Receivership Estate”). On April 15, 2019, Burton Wiand was appointed as the receiver (“Receiver”) in this matter and continues to serve in this capacity (Dkt. 7).

Based on similar allegations in the Complaint with respect to the fraudulent scheme, on August 12, 2019, Defendant Anile pleaded guilty to an information charging him with conspiracy to commit wire fraud and mail fraud, an illegal monetary transaction, and filing a false income tax return, for his involvement in the fraudulent scheme. Plea Agreement, United States v. Anile (the “Criminal Action”), No. 8:19-CR-00334-MSS-CPT (M.D. Fla. Aug. 12, 2019) (Dkt. 3). On May 4, 2022, a jury found Defendant DaCorta guilty of conspiracy to commit wire fraud and mail fraud, illegal monetary transactions, and filing a false income tax return—all related to the same fraudulent scheme alleged in the Complaint and admitted to by Defendant Anile. Jury Verdict, United States v. DaCorta, No. 8:19-CR-00605-WFJ-CPT (M.D. Fla. May 4, 2022) (Dkt. 192). Defendant DaCorta and Defendant Anile were each ordered to pay $53,270,336.08 in criminal restitution, representing the loss to victims of the fraudulent scheme, and both were also ordered to serve prison sentences. See respective Judgments in a Criminal Case, DaCorta, Dkt. 234; Anile, Dkt. 58.

III. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that there is good cause for the entry of this Consent Order and that there is no just reason for delay. The Court therefore directs the entry of the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, permanent injunction and equitable relief pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, as set forth herein. The findings and conclusions in this Consent Order are not binding on any other party to this action.

THE PARTIES AGREE AND THE COURT HEREBY FINDS:

A. Findings of Fact

1. The CFTC and Defendant Anile Are the Parties to This Consent Order.

15. Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission is an independent federal regulatory agency that is charged by Congress with administering and enforcing the Act and the Regulations.

16. Defendant Joseph S. Anile, II is a resident of Jacksonville, Florida. Anile co-founded and was a principal shareholder, director, and president of OIG. Anile had responsibility for staffing, guiding, and managing OIG's vision, mission, strategic plan, and direction. Anile controlled OIG bank accounts. Additionally, Anile opened trading accounts for the Oasis Pools. Anile assisted in facilitating real estate purchases with pool funds and making non-forex investments with pool funds. Anile has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

2. Defendants' Investment Scheme Defrauded Hundreds of Pool Participants.

17. During the Relevant Period, Defendants operated a fraudulent scheme to solicit and misappropriate money given to them for the purpose of engaging in leveraged, margined, or financed transactions in foreign currency with customers that were not ECPs as described in Section 2(c)(2)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C) ("retail forex"). Defendants did so through several interrelated domestic and foreign entities (OIG, OM, and SHC), acting as a common enterprise. These entities acted as commodity pool operators for the commodity pools Oasis Global FX, Limited and later Oasis Global FX, S.A. (together, the “Oasis Pools”).

18. Defendants fraudulently solicited approximately 800 members of the public (“pool participants”) to invest over $80 million in the Oasis Pools, which purportedly would trade in retail forex. But only a portion of the pool funds were used to trade retail forex—which trading incurred losses—and instead the majority of pool funds were misappropriated and pool participants were issued false account statements to conceal the trading losses and misappropriation.

19. During the course of the fraudulent scheme, Defendants made material misrepresentations to pool participants, including that: (1) all pool funds would be used to trade retail forex; (2) pool participants would receive a minimum 12% guaranteed annual return from this retail forex trading; (3) the Oasis Pools were profitable and returned 22% in 2017 and 21% in 2018; (4) the Oasis Pools had never had a losing month; (5) money being returned to pool participants was from profitable trading; (6) there was no risk of loss with the Oasis Pools; and (7) pool participants could earn extra returns by referring other pool participants to the Oasis Pools.

20. Instead, Defendants DaCorta and Anile misappropriated the majority of pool funds. Defendants deposited only $21 million into retail forex trading accounts in the names of the Oasis Pools, all of which was lost trading retail forex. Defendants misappropriated over $28 million of pool funds to make Ponzi-like payments to other pool participants. Defendants misappropriated over $18 million of pool funds for unauthorized personal or business expenses, such as real estate purchases in Florida, exotic vacations, sports tickets, loans to family members, and college and study abroad tuition.

21. To conceal the trading losses and misappropriation, Defendants DaCorta and Anile, on behalf of OIG and OM, created and issued false account statements to pool participants that inflated and misrepresented the value of the pool participants' investments in the Oasis Pools and the Oasis Pools' trading returns. The pool participants believed that these account statement balances reflected money actually held in accounts for the Oasis Pools and that they reflected the pool participants' principal investment amounts, interest on that principal, and in many cases, "referral" fees for introducing other pool participants to the "opportunity." When the CFTC filed its initial complaint, however, the assets of the Oasis Pools were such that they were ultimately short $50 million to pay back even pool participants' principal investments, let alone interest on their investments and referral fees.

3. Anile Misappropriated Pool Funds for Personal Use.

22. Instead of using pool participants' funds for forex trading in the Oasis Pools, Defendant Anile knowingly misappropriated the funds for his personal benefit.

23. Defendant Anile used pool funds to purchase a personal residence in Sarasota, Florida in which he and his family resided. To effect the purchase, Anile created a legal entity, 4064 Founders Club Drive, LLC (“4064 Founders Club”), which had a bank account on which Anile and his wife were the only signatories. 4064 Founders Club received over $590,000 in pool funds during the Relevant Period, and pool funds were the only source of funds in the account. 4064 Founders Club was named as a Relief Defendant in the Complaint, and was transferred to the care and custody of the Receiver.

24. Defendant Anile also created additional legal entities, Bowling Green Capital Management LLC (“Bowling Green”), and 4Oaks LLC (“4Oaks”). Bowling Green and 4Oaks both had bank accounts on which Anile and his wife were the only signatories. Bowling Green’s account received over $2.1 million in pool funds during the Relevant Period, and 4Oaks received over $177,000 in pool funds during the Relevant Period. Pool funds were the only source of funds in the Bowling Green and 4Oaks accounts. Both Bowling Green and 4Oaks were named as Relief Defendants in the Complaint and transferred to the care and custody of the Receiver.

25. Defendant Anile misappropriated millions of dollars from the Oasis Pools. Anile regularly used corporate bank accounts, in which pool funds were the only source of funds, to pay for personal living expenses for himself and his family. Anile also spent substantial pool funds on numerous vehicles, including a Ferrari; private school and college tuition and loan payments for his family; jewelry; furniture; landscaping; moving expenses; restaurants; vacations; and pet supplies.

26. Defendant Anile controlled OIG's bank accounts, and opened the trading accounts for the Oasis Pools. Of the approximately $80 million received from pool participants for the Oasis Pools, Anile deposited just over $20 million in the trading accounts for retail forex trading. Nearly all of this money was lost trading retail forex.

27. Defendant Anile executed all payments, wires, and withdrawals from OIG's bank accounts at his own or Defendant DaCorta's direction. The only source of funds in these accounts was from participants in the Oasis Pools.

28. Defendant Anile's misappropriation of pool funds operated as a fraud on pool participants.

4. Defendant OIG Failed To Operate the Oasis Pools As Separate Legal Entities or To Receive Funds in the Oasis Pools' Names.

29. Defendant OIG, acting as a commodity pool operator ("CPO") of the Oasis Pools, did not operate the Oasis Pools as separate legal entities. OIG failed to open bank accounts specifically designated for the Oasis Pools. OIG also failed to receive pool participants' funds in the names of the Oasis Pools and commingled the property of the Oasis Pools with the property of Defendants or others.

5. Defendant OIG Failed To Register with the CFTC.

30. Defendant OIG operated as a CPO in that it engaged in a business that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and they solicited, accepted, or received funds, securities, property, or capital contributions for the purpose of trading in commodity interests, including retail forex transactions.

31. Defendant OIG used emails, wire transfers, phone calls including conference calls, and other means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce to solicit, accept, and receive pool participants' funds for the purpose of trading retail forex.

32. During the Relevant Period, Defendant OIG was never registered as a CPO and was not exempt or excluded from registration as a CPO.

6. Defendant OIG Failed To Provide Adequate Pool Disclosures and Other Relevant Documents.

33. At or near the time of participation in the Oasis Pools, Defendant OIG, while acting as a CPO of the Oasis Pools, provided potential pool participants with a document titled "Agreement and Risk Disclosures," along with a "Promissory Note and Loan Agreement."

34. The Agreement and Risk Disclosure purported to alert investors to the risks associated with investing in retail forex, but at the same time, the Promissory Note and Loan Agreement guaranteed pool participants a minimum 12% annual return.

35. The Agreement and Risk Disclosure did not include the required cautionary statement to investors or a full and complete risk disclosure, including the risks involved in retail forex trading.

36. In addition, Defendant OIG also failed to provide pool participants with additional required information, including but not limited to the fees and expenses incurred by the Oasis Pools, past performance disclosures, and a statement that the CPO is required to provide all pool participants with monthly or quarterly account statements, as well as an annual report containing financial statements certified by an independent public accountant.

7. Defendant Anile Was a Controlling Person of OIG.

37. Defendant Anile was a controlling person of OIG. He co-founded and was an OIG principal shareholder, director, and president of OIG. Oasis's website stated that Anile had responsibility for staffing, guiding, and managing OIG's vision, mission, strategic plan, and direction. Additionally, Anile opened the trading accounts used for the Oasis Pools and controlled OIG bank accounts.

B. Conclusions of Law

1. Jurisdiction and Venue

38. This Court possesses jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (codifying federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (providing that U.S. district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). 41. Under Section 2(c)(2)(C)(i) and (iv) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C)(i), (iv), transactions in foreign currency (such as the retail forex transactions described herein), that are entered into with persons who are not eligible contract participants, are subject to Section 4b of the Act “as if” they are a contract of sale of a commodity for future delivery.

50. Under Regulation 5.1(d)(1), 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d)(1) (2022), and subject to certain exceptions not relevant here, any person who operates or solicits funds, securities, or property for a pooled investment vehicle and engages in retail forex transactions is a retail forex CPO.

51. Under Section 2(c)(2)(C)(ii)(I) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(C)(ii)(I), “[a]greements, contracts, or transactions” in retail forex and accounts or pooled investment vehicles “shall be subject to . . . section[] 6o [of the Act],” except in circumstances not relevant here.

52. During the Relevant Period, Defendant OIG engaged in a business, for compensation or profit, that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and in connection therewith, solicited, accepted, or received from others, funds, securities, or property, either directly or through capital contributions, the sale of stock or other forms of securities, or otherwise, for the purpose of trading in commodity interests; therefore, Defendant OIG acted as a CPO, as defined by 7 U.S.C. § 1a(11).

53. During the Relevant Period, Defendant OIG was not registered with the CFTC as a CPO.

54. 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1)(A)-(B), prohibits CPOs, whether registered with the CFTC or not, by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, directly or indirectly, from employing devices, schemes, or artifices to defraud any client or participant or prospective client or participant, or engaging in transactions, practices, or courses of business which operate as a fraud or deceit upon any client or participant or prospective client or participant.

an ECP, as defined in Section 1a(18) of the Act, 17 U.S.C. § 1a(18), and who engages in retail forex transactions.

61. Except in circumstances not relevant here, Regulation 5.3(a)(2)(i), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(2)(i) (2022), requires those that meet the definition of a retail forex CPO under Regulation 5.1(d), 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(d) (2022), to register as a CPO with the CFTC.

62. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant OIG engaged in a business, for compensation or profit, that is of the nature of a commodity pool, investment trust, syndicate, or similar form of enterprise, and in connection therewith, solicited, accepted, or received from others, funds, securities, or property, either directly or through capital contributions, the sale of stock or other forms of securities, or otherwise, for the purpose of trading in commodity interests, including retail forex transactions; therefore, Defendant OIG acted as a CPO as defined by 7 U.S.C. § 1a(11).

63. Defendant OIG while using the mails or means of interstate commerce in connection with its business as a CPO, was not registered with the CFTC as a CPO.

5. OIG Failed To Accept Funds in the Name of the Oasis Pools and Commingled Funds in Violation of Regulation 4.20, 17 C.F.R. § 4.20 \(2022\).

69. Regulation 5.4, 17 C.F.R. § 5.4 \(2022\), states that Part 4 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 4 (2022), applies to any person required to register as a CPO pursuant to Part 5 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 5 (2022), relating to forex transactions.

70. 17 C.F.R. § 4.20\(b\) prohibits CPOs, whether registered or not, from receiving pool participants' funds in any name other than that of the pool.

71. 17 C.F.R. § 4.20\(c\) prohibits CPOs, whether registered or not, from commingling the property of any pool it operates with the property of any other person.

72. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant OIG, while acting as a CPO for the Oasis Pools, failed to receive the pool participants' funds in the names of the Oasis Pools, and commingled the property of the Oasis Pools with property of Defendants or others.

73. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant OIG violated 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b)-(c).

74. Defendant Anile controlled OIG, directly or indirectly, and did not act in good faith or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, OIG's conduct. Therefore, under 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b), Defendant Anile is liable for OIG's violations of 17 C.F.R. § 4.20(b)-(c).
