INTRODUCTION

Burton W. Wiand, the Court-appointed receiver over the assets of the above-captioned defendants and relief defendants (the “Receiver” and the “Receivership” or “Receivership Estate”), files this Twenty-Ninth Interim Report to inform the Court, investors, creditors, and others interested in this Receivership of his activities to date as well as his proposed course of action. The Receiver has established a website, www.oasisreceivership.com, which he updates periodically. The Receiver will continue to update this website regarding his most significant actions, important Court filings, and other items that might be of interest to the public. This Interim Report, as well as all other reports, will be posted on the website.¹

Overview of Significant Activities During this Reporting Period

During the time covered by this Interim Report, the Receiver and his professionals engaged in the following significant activities:

- Filed a verified motion for an order to show cause why members of the so-called “Oasis Helpers Group” (the “Helpers Group”), including Jason McKee, Greg Melick, defendant Michael DaCorta, and attorneys Brent Winters and Stephen Preziosi, should not be held in civil contempt for violating the Court’s Receivership Orders;
- Obtained an order granting the show cause motion in large part, setting an evidentiary hearing, and issuing a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum to produce DaCorta for the hearing;

¹ As directed by the Court, the Receiver will submit his next interim report and subsequent reports within thirty days after the end of each calendar quarter. Where possible, the Receiver has also included information about events occurring between March 31, 2026 (the end of the reporting period) and the date of this filing.

- Undertook extensive efforts, including retaining a private investigator and process server, to personally serve nonparty Respondents Winters, Melick, and McKee, each of whom evaded service, and moved the Court for approval of substituted service under Florida, Indiana, and Illinois law.
- Continued to prosecute the Receiver's litigation against ATC Brokers Ltd., David Manoukian, and Spotex, LLC, including filing oppositions to motions to dismiss the Second Amended Complaint filed by the defendants;
- Obtained additional settlement payments of $6,200.00; and
- Collected $8,612.92 in interest income on seized funds.

Overview of Activities Since the Beginning of this Receivership

Since the beginning of this Receivership, the Receiver and his professionals have engaged in the following significant activities:

- Seized approximately $9,158,582.33 from frozen bank accounts at numerous financial institutions, including two Belizean banks;
- Generated $53,335.13 in business income, primarily from mortgages and rentals;
- Liquidated an additional approximately $7,900,770.82 in assets (net, excluding remitted funds), mostly subject to agreements with the Department of Justice and the United States Marshals Service;
- Collected $831,269.33 in interest and/or dividend income;
- Collected total litigation income of $5,915,723.28 through clawback litigation and other third-party settlements; and
- Collected other miscellaneous income of $7,788,374.26, including funds remitted by the Department of Justice.

These activities are discussed in more detail in the pertinent sections of this Interim Report and in the Receiver's previous interim reports.

BACKGROUND

I. Procedure and Chronology

On April 15, 2019, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) filed this enforcement action alleging that DaCorta, Joseph S. Anile, II (“Anile”), and the other named defendants violated the Commodity Exchange Act and CFTC regulations through the operation of a fraudulent foreign currency (“forex”) trading scheme. The CFTC alleged that between mid-April 2014 and April 2019, the defendants fraudulently solicited over 700 U.S. residents to invest in two forex commodity pools – Oasis Global FX, Limited and Oasis Global FX, S.A. (collectively, the “Oasis Pools”). The CFTC also asserted that the defendants raised approximately $75 million from these investors and misappropriated over $28 million of the pool funds to make payments to other pool participants and over $18 million for unauthorized personal and business expenses, including the transfer of at least $7 million to the relief defendants.²

² On June 12, 2019, the CFTC filed an amended complaint (Doc. 110), which contained additional allegations about certain defendants and relief defendants.

On the same day, the Court entered an order appointing Burton W. Wiand as temporary Receiver for the Receivership Entities (Doc. 7).³ Subsequently, all defendants and relief defendants either defaulted or consented to the entry of a preliminary injunction against them (with some differences unique to the circumstances of each party). See Docs. 35, 43, 44, 82, 85, 172, 174-77.

On August 8, 2019, defendant Anile pled guilty to three counts involving the scheme: (1) conspiracy to commit wire and mail fraud; (2) engaging in an illegal monetary transaction; and (3) filing a false income tax return. See United States of America v. Joseph S. Anile, II, Case No. 8:19-cr-334-T-35CPT (M.D. Fla.). On November 18, 2020, Anile was sentenced to imprisonment of 120 months and supervised release of three years, which the Court subsequently reduced. Id. at Docs. 56, 76, and 77. He was also ordered to pay restitution of $53,270,336.08. Id.

A federal grand jury indicted defendant DaCorta for (1) conspiracy to commit wire fraud and mail fraud, (2) engaging in an illegal monetary transaction, and (3) tax evasion. See United States of America v. Michael J.

³ On July 11, 2019, the Court entered a Consolidated Receivership Order, which is now the operative document governing the Receiver's activities. Doc. 177 (the "Consolidated Order"). On April 23, 2021, the Court reappointed the Receiver for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 754, but the order of reappointment attaches and incorporates the Consolidated Order by reference. See Doc. 390. As such, the provisions of the Consolidated Order continue to govern the Receiver's mandate upon reappointment. Id.

DaCorta, Case No. 8:19-cr-605-T-02CPT (M.D. Fla.). DaCorta stood trial in April 2022, and on May 4, 2022, after two weeks of testimony and argument before the Honorable William F. Jung and less than four hours of deliberation, a jury found him guilty on all counts. Id. at Doc. 192. On October 20, 2022, Judge Jung sentenced DaCorta to 23 years of imprisonment for his role in the Ponzi scheme underlying this enforcement action. Id. at Doc. 234. Judge Jung also ordered DaCorta to pay restitution in the amount of $53,270,336.08, jointly and severally with defendant Anile. DaCorta was taken into custody and is in prison. He appealed his conviction, but on May 1, 2024, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed the trial court. See United States of America v. DaCorta, Case No. 22-13564 (11th Cir.). On June 20, 2025, New York attorney Preziosi entered a motion for pro hac vice appearance on behalf of DaCorta in this matter. On July 28, 2025, Preziosi filed a motion to vacate DaCorta's conviction using funds essentially extorted from DaCorta's victims. See Michael J. DaCorta, Case No. 8:19-cr-605-T-02CPT (M.D. Fla.) at Doc. 249. The motion to vacate is fully briefed as of March 2, 2026. The Court has not yet ruled on the motion.

In this civil enforcement action, on July 17, 2023, the CFTC and DaCorta filed cross-motions for summary judgment (Docs. 749 and 750). On December 6, 2023, the Court granted the CFTC's motion for summary judgment and denied DaCorta's motion. Doc. 780. The Court found that DaCorta had no evidence to contest any of the CFTC’s material arguments. Id. The Court entered judgment against DaCorta in the amount of $53,270,336.08 plus post-judgment interest and a civil penalty of $8,453,628.48. DaCorta appealed the Court’s order. The Eleventh Circuit heard oral argument for this matter on June 26, 2026. See generally C.F.T.C. v. DaCorta, Case No. 24-10132-AA (11th Cir.). No opinion has been issued as of the date of this report. DaCorta’s defense of the CFTC action and his appeal of the judgment in that action are being funded with money solicited from DaCorta’s victims, who are claimants in this Receivership.

Defendants Raymond P. Montie (“Montie”), John J. Haas (“Haas”), Frank L. Duran, Oasis International Group, Limited (“OIG”), Oasis Management, LLC, and Satellite Holdings Company all consented to judgments against them on the CFTC’s charges. The Court entered judgments against all of them. See Docs. 783, 786-90. The orders require the defendants to disgorge their ill-gotten gains and to pay a civil penalty. The Receiver has entered into settlement agreements with defendants Montie and Haas. Both have made monetary settlements with the Receiver.

II. Overview of the Receiver’s Findings

After the Receiver’s appointment, he conducted an investigation and concluded that the Oasis scheme was a Ponzi scheme conducted by DaCorta and others. This conclusion is supported by Anile’s 2019 guilty plea, DaCorta’s 2022 criminal conviction, and the Court's order granting the CFTC's motion for summary judgment. The scheme began with the sale of preferred shares that promised a 12% dividend that was to be derived from trading by the Oasis Pools. The 12% return was to be derived from trading profits and transaction income earned by Oasis.

Investors were sold the preferred shares through a private placement memorandum that contained significant false representations and omitted numerous material facts. Continued deception of the investors allowed the scheme to proliferate. Investors were led to believe that they held valuable loan accounts that continually earned money when, in fact, the scheme appears to have been insolvent since its inception. For example, when the CFTC stopped the scheme in April 2019, the fraudulent website the perpetrators created showed investors that they were owed an aggregate of over $120 million. In truth, OIG only had liquid assets of less than $10 million. Oasis continually lost money in forex trading and never produced any trading profits for distribution to investors.

At the time the CFTC asked the Court to freeze the Receivership Entities' accounts, OIG was accruing debt obligations to its investors in excess of $1 million per month. OIG was losing money and had no ability to satisfy its obligations to its investors, yet insiders were regularly representing to investors that its operations were profitable. The Receiver's analysis indicates that a total of approximately $80 million was raised from investors but only a small fraction of those funds was traded. The remainder of the money raised from investors was used to make Ponzi payments to other investors, pay expenses to perpetuate the scheme, and enrich the defendants. For a more detailed overview of the Receiver's findings, please refer to the Receiver's Twenty-Fourth Interim Report and prior interim reports.

A. The Receiver's Investigation into Defendant DaCorta's Assets, the Ongoing Obstruction of the Receivership, and Recovery Scam Targeting Defrauded Investors

As detailed in numerous prior interim reports, the Receiver discovered alarming evidence of (1) conflicts of interests between Winters, who simultaneously has represented hundreds of victims of the scheme and DaCorta, the convicted mastermind of the scheme; (2) funds of at least $800,000 were obtained from claimants through an ongoing recovery fraud targeting victim-investors; and (3) nearly all of this money was used to fund efforts to defend DaCorta, pay unknown credit cards, buy $322,000 of gold coins, and disrupt the Receivership.⁴ See, e.g., Docs. 811, 864, and 889.

⁴ Through the Consolidated Order and its predecessors, the Court directed the Receiver to implement the asset freeze and to marshal and safeguard all property belonging to the defendants and relief defendants. Pursuant to this mandate and as explained in prior interim reports, the Receiver seized and liquidated luxury real estate, sports cars, and precious metals, among other things. The Court has never exempted any cash or other property from the asset freeze for the payment of defendant DaCorta's legal expenses.

In the Receiver's Twenty-Seventh Interim Report, he provided new evidence of ongoing fraudulent and extortionate efforts to raise funds for DaCorta from investors. Doc. 899. In response to this report, on March 24, 2026, the Court held a public, duly-noticed status conference. The Receiver presented evidence to the Court in support of the information provided in the interim report. In short, the Helpers Group and Winters have fraudulently raised money from victim-claimants to finance the defense of DaCorta (the architect of the Oasis fraud), directly harass and interfere with the Receiver and this Court's administration of the Receivership, and they continue to do so.

1. Motion and Order to Show Cause

As a result of the status conference, on April 3, 2026, the Receiver filed a verified motion for an order to show cause why certain individuals associated with the Helpers Group – i.e., McKee (individually and as trustee of Trust LLT), Melick, DaCorta, and attorneys Winters and Preziosi should not be held in civil contempt for violating the Court's Consolidated Order. Doc. 904. The motion sought, among other relief, injunctive measures to prevent further interference with the Receivership, an accounting of investor funds received by Respondents, disgorgement and turnover of assets, and reimbursement of fees and costs incurred by the Receivership Estate. Id.

On May 1, 2026, Preziosi filed an opposition to the motion. Doc. 911. On June 10, 2026, the Court granted the show cause motion in large part and set the show cause hearing for July 15, 2026.⁵ Doc. 927. As discussed below, the date of the hearing has changed to August 7, 2026. The Court directed the Receiver to serve nonparty Respondents Winters, Melick, and McKee under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(e). Id. at 17–18.

a. Winters, Melick, and McKee’s Evasion of Service

Despite substantial diligence, including retention of a private investigative firm and a process server, multiple personal-service attempts across several states, and extensive skip-tracing and public-records review, the Receiver was unable to personally serve Winters, Melick, or McKee, each of whom appear to be actively evading service. Winters has no discernable residence, and his published office address is a UPS store. The Receiver has previously attempted to serve Winters at four separate addresses, across three states. For this hearing, the Receiver even pursued and investigated rumors of Winters concealing his whereabouts by (1) living in a yurt on isolated, rural property owned by family members, (2) using rental cars to travel and avoid relevant ownership records, and (3) living in extended-stay hotel suites for material amounts of time when in Idaho.⁶ Melick likewise could not be confirmed at any residential address despite extensive efforts, and a process server's repeated attempts at a possible New Hampshire address were unsuccessful.⁷ McKee's vehicle was confirmed present at his Illinois residence, but he declined to answer the door and did not respond to any outreach. The process server visited the property five times on both weekdays and weekends.

Given this evasion, on June 26, 2026, the Receiver filed a motion to approve substituted service on these three Respondents through the Florida Secretary of State, and additionally under Indiana law as to Winters and Illinois law as to McKee. Doc. 935. After resolving a procedural matter with respect to McKee, the Court granted substituted service via the Florida Secretary of State, and authorized service on McKee and Winters under procedural rules of their respective states. Docs. 936, 939. As a result, the Receiver was able to serve McKee by email and U.S. mail under Illinois law and Winters by email under Indiana law. The Receiver, however, could not serve Melick by either mail or email under New Hampshire law. Melick had to be served through the Secretary of State, which had a processing backlog and would not complete service before the July 15 hearing.

⁷ Melick might also go by the name Charles Gregory Melick. Notably, there is at least one historical IRS case, including an order to show cause, against Charles Gregory Melick where a bench warrant was required due to his attempts to evade service. The Receiver has not been able to confirm whether that individual is the same person as Respondent Melick.

Because Melick is a central figure behind the Helpers' Group and the principal author of most, if not all, the Helpers' Group's lender updates and other investor communications, proceeding without Melick would render any relief largely ineffective. As such, on July 10, 2026, the Receiver moved to continue the hearing. Doc. 944. The Court granted the motion on July 10, 2026, and rescheduled the evidentiary hearing to August 7, 2026. Docs. 945 and 946. Service by the Secretary of State was effective on Melick as of July 17, 2026. Doc. 953. In addition to the foregoing, the Receiver has sent all pleadings he has filed regarding the show cause motion and hearing to every known email address for the Respondents. No Respondent, other than Preziosi (on behalf of himself and DaCorta), has appeared or communicated with the Receiver.

b. Preziosi's Appeal, Motion for Reconsideration, and Joint Motion for Discharge

On June 12, 2026, Preziosi noticed an appeal to the Eleventh Circuit from the order to show cause, which temporarily stayed the action. Doc. 929. On June 16, 2026, the Court entered an order stating that the order to show cause is not a final, appealable order and there is no basis for an interlocutory appeal. Doc. 932. The Court also directed the clerk to lift the stay. Id. On July 6, 2026, Preziosi moved for reconsideration of the show cause order (Doc. 940), which stayed the appeal. Stephen Preziosi v. Burton Wiand, Appellate Case Number 26-12091 (11th Cir.), Doc. 5. On July 20, 2026, the Receiver filed an opposition to the motion for reconsideration. Doc. 955.

On July 25, 2026, the Receiver and Preziosi filed a joint motion to discharge the show cause order as to Preziosi only, based on Preziosi's affidavit and related agreements with the Receiver. Doc. 956 (the "Joint Motion"). Specifically, Preziosi agreed to (1) withdraw from representing DaCorta in this action (though not in the pending appeal or habeas proceeding, represented as substantially complete); (2) accept no further funds to represent DaCorta in any capacity; (3) work with the Receiver to correct the Helpers Group's misrepresentations to investors; (4) produce his communications with Melick; and (5) continue cooperating with the Receiver regarding the August 7, 2026 hearing. Id.

Importantly for victims of the recovery fraud, Preziosi makes the following statements under oath in his affidavit:

- "I never made any representations to anyone that success on the appeal or the habeas action would result in DaCorta or anyone else receiving hundreds of millions of dollars" Doc. 956-1, ¶12 (emphasis added);

- “I do not know that any recovery is possible should DaCorta be successful on appeal, and I have made no such representation to anyone.” Id. at ¶ 13 (emphasis added);
- “I do not believe that the appellate court has the authority to order the recovery of money or that DaCorta be reimbursed any money. The only thing the appellate court would have the authority to do is to remand the case to the trial court for further proceedings.” Id. at ¶ 14
- “The habeas court has jurisdiction only over the criminal proceedings and has no authority to dictate or order the recovery of funds in the civil matter. Id. at ¶ 14 (emphasis added).

On July 27, 2026, the Court entered an order on the Joint Motion granting it to the extent of discharging the order to show cause as to Preziosi but noting that Preziosi must file a proper notice to withdraw from representing DaCorta to be granted leave to withdraw. Doc. 957. The Court also found that if Preziosi is called to testify at the hearing he must be physically present. Id. Preziosi filed a motion to be relieved of counsel for DaCorta in the Middle District of Florida on July 28, 2026. Doc. 958.

c. DaCorta’s Appearance at Show Cause Hearing

On June 10, 2026, the same day it issued the order to show cause, the Court issued a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum directing the U.S. Marshals Service to produce DaCorta for the hearing. Doc. 928. DaCorta was moved from his prison facility pursuant to the writ for the then-scheduled July 15, 2026 hearing. After the hearing date was changed to August 7, 2026, DaCorta moved through Preziosi to be remanded and requested leave to appear at the rescheduled hearing remotely. Doc. 948. On July 16, 2026, the Court granted remand but denied remote appearance. Doc. 951. In the Joint Motion Preziosi renewed his motion for DaCorta's appearance by Zoom, which the Court again denied in its July 27, 2026 Order reiterating that DaCorta's physical presence is required. Doc. 957. Preziosi has instructed DaCorta not to testify at the evidentiary hearing based on his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination.

2. Receiver's Efforts to Enforce Subpoena to IPM.

As all of DaCorta's assets are subject to the Court-imposed asset freeze and restitution order of $53 million and none have been exempted for DaCorta's legal expenses, the Receiver has been investigating possible violations of these orders. In the course of that investigation, the Receiver learned that the Trust LLT sent $322,000 of claimant funds to IPM for the purported purchase of $322,000 in gold coins. The Trust LLT is the entity to which claimants were directed to send payments for Winters' services and was used to funnel funds from deceived investors to DaCorta's lawyers. The current whereabouts or disposition of the gold coins is unknown. Presumably, the $322,000 of gold coins (now valued at approximately $684,216)⁸ has disappeared into the hands of Winters and/or the Helpers Group.

As previously reported, IPM's refusal to comply with the Receiver's subpoena served on it necessitated the Receiver filing a motion to compel the company's compliance and for sanctions through local counsel in Idaho. See Wiand, as Receiver v. Intermountain Precious Metals LLC, Case No. 1:24-mc-00086-AKB (D. Idaho); Doc. 882 (Receiver's Twenty-Sixth Interim Report). IPM's owner, Nathan Young, opposed the motion to compel and attempted to invoke the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination. The court ordered IPM to retain counsel, granted the Receiver's motion to compel, and found that IPM would be subject to sanctions, including the Receiver's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, if the company failed to comply with the subpoena within 30 days of the court's order.

In willful contempt of the order, IPM did not produce any of the required documents or retain counsel. Instead, Young filed and lost appeals to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. On August 22, 2025, after IPM's continued failure to produce responsive documents, the Receiver filed his second motion to compel compliance with the subpoena and for daily sanctions (“Second Sanctions Motion”). Subsequently, IPM made a limited and deficient limited production of handwritten responses to the Receiver’s subpoena and two sales orders. Despite repeated attempts by the Receiver’s attorneys to resolve the production deficiencies without court intervention, Young failed to respond. Thus, on October 15, 2025, the Receiver filed a supplemental report again requesting the court’s intervention and sanctions as sought in the Second Sanctions Motion. It seems that IPM is materially assisting the Helpers Group in laundering funds from deceived investors.

On April 27, 2026, the Idaho district court entered an order finding IPM in contempt of court for failing to comply with the subpoena and the Court’s order, allowing IPM ten days to produce additional documents, imposing a $1,000 weekly sanction thereafter if IPM fails to comply, and ordering IPM to pay the Receiver’s reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs associated with bringing both motions. The Receiver will prepare the motion for attorneys’ fees and submit it to the Idaho court as soon as practicable.

ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE RECEIVER

During this reporting period, the Receiver has taken steps to fulfill his mandates under the Consolidated Order and its predecessors. Doc. 177 ¶ 56.

For the Receiver's additional efforts, including sales of real property, precious metals, and vehicles, please refer to prior interim reports.

III. Financial Status of The Receivership Estate

Attached as Exhibit A to this Interim Report is a cash accounting report showing (1) the amount of money on hand from April 1, 2026, less operating expenses plus revenue, through June 30, 2026, and (2) the same information from the beginning of the Receivership (as opposed to the current reporting period). The cash accounting report does not reflect non-cash or cash-equivalent assets. Thus, the value of any uncollected or unsold property discussed below is not included in the accounting report. From April 1, 2026, through June 30, 2026, the Receiver collected $8,612.92 from interest income and $6,200.00 in third-party litigation income.⁹ See Ex. A. All Receivership funds are held in a money market account and a checking account at ServisFirst Bank. The Receiver has deposited all frozen funds and all additional funds he obtained into these accounts.

⁹ As explained in footnote 1, to the extent possible, the Receiver has included in this Interim Report transactions and events occurring after June 30, 2026, to give the Court and others the most current overview of the Receiver's activities. Money collected after that date, however, is not reflected in Exhibit A. Those collections will be included in the Receiver's next interim report.

A list of previously frozen bank or other financial accounts organized by defendant, relief defendant, and/or affiliated entity is attached as Exhibit B.¹⁰ Almost all available funds from the accounts identified on Exhibit B have either been secured by the Receiver through the asset freeze, obtained through settlement, or released via settlement. The Receiver also identified and/or seized the personal property listed in Exhibit C.¹¹ He has sold most items as set forth in the exhibit.

IV. Litigation

The Receiver has engaged in substantial litigation efforts throughout the course of this Receivership. As shown on Exhibit A, these efforts have resulted in the recovery of approximately $5,915,723.28 from the inception of the Receivership through June 30, 2026. The majority of the litigation has been resolved. At this time, the only remaining litigation activities include: (1) collection on settlements and the enforcement of a judgment; and (2) litigation against ATC Brokers, Ltd., David Manoukian, and Spotex, LLC. The following subsections address the foregoing as well as certain related litigation. At this time, the Receiver does not believe that any additional litigation would be of ¹⁰ Previously, defendants Montie and Haas were required to provide the CFTC and the Receiver with monthly financial statements for certain accounts, which the Receiver used to update Exhibit B. Due to their settlements with the CFTC and the Receiver, Montie and Haas are no longer required to provide the monthly statements. Exhibit B now labels the accounts "Settlement" with a frozen balance of $0.00 and a liquidated balance of $0.00.

¹¹ Importantly, the values identified in Exhibit C were and are only estimates. Actual recoveries have been and will be subject to market conditions and other factors.

economic benefit to the Receivership. For more information regarding the Receiver's litigation efforts, please refer to prior interim reports.

A. Completed Litigation

1. Settled Litigation Against Montie

The Receiver settled litigation he brought against defendant Montie for $549,410.88, after the evaluation of the Receiver's claims and the prospects of collection. The Court approved the settlement agreement on January 1, 2024. See Doc. 793. Certain escrowed funds as well as monies already seized by the Receiver have been credited to the settlement amount. Montie must pay the remainder pursuant to a negotiated schedule. Upon satisfaction of the settlement agreement and the CFTC's consent order, the asset freeze will be lifted with respect to Montie's remaining property.

B. Pending and Related Litigation

The Receiver is not aware of any litigation against Receivership Entities that was pending at his appointment, and the Consolidated Order enjoins the filing of any litigation against Receivership Entities without leave of Court.

1. The Receiver's General Clawback Litigation

Through pre-suit settlement procedures approved by the Court, the Receiver obtained pre-suit clawback settlements collectively worth $246,497.09 in connection with investors who received false profits. Docs. 237, 247. On April 14, 2020, the Receiver filed a complaint against almost 100 non-settling investors, seeking to recover approximately $4.4 million plus costs and prejudgment interest (the “Clawback Action”). Through the Clawback Action, the Receiver obtained post-suit or post-judgment settlements worth approximately $1,214,917.09, and default judgments worth approximately $2,145,880.47. The liability portion of the Clawback Action is complete. The Receiver sold all outstanding judgments except one in the amount of $146,092.90.¹² Docs. 863 and 866. The Receiver has conducted collection efforts on this judgment which have been unsuccessful to date.

2. The Receiver’s Litigation Against ATC Brokers Ltd., Spotex LLC, and Affiliates

On May 28, 2021, the Receiver filed suit against ATC Brokers Ltd., David Manoukian, and Spotex LLC asserting claims for aiding and abetting fraud, aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duties, recovery of fraudulent transfers from ATC, gross negligence, and simple negligence (the “ATC Litigation”). As previously reported, this litigation was remanded to the district court following the Receiver’s successful appeal of a prior dismissal order.

Following remand, the Receiver moved for compliance with the appellate mandate and for leave to amend his complaint. The district court granted that relief in substantial part, and on February 13, 2026, the Receiver filed his Second Amended Complaint. The Second Amended Complaint continues to assert substantial fraudulent transfer and related tort claims arising from the defendants' alleged role in facilitating the Oasis scheme and seeks recovery for the benefit of the Receivership Estate.

The case is now actively proceeding in the district court. Each defendant has filed motions to dismiss the Second Amended Complaint. The Receiver opposed the motions to dismiss on May 20, 2026, to which the defendants replied on June 17, 2026. No ruling has been entered on the motions to dismiss as of the date of this report. The Court also entered an amended Case Management and Scheduling Order setting the matter for a jury trial during the May 2028 trial term, with dispositive motions due in November 2027 and mediation to occur before trial. The Receiver intends to continue aggressively prosecuting this action.

V. Claims Process

As explained more fully in prior interim reports, with the Court's approval the Receiver established a claims process through which he is distributing the proceeds of the Receivership Estate to creditors, including defrauded investors. The Claim Bar Date (as defined in Doc. 230 – i.e., the deadline for submitting claims to the Receiver) was June 15, 2020. As of that date (with minimal exceptions), investors and other creditors submitted approximately 800 proof of claim forms totaling approximately $70 million. Anyone who did not submit a proof of claim form by that date is barred from participating in a distribution from the Receivership Estate.

On December 9, 2022, the Receiver moved the Court for an order (1) approving a first interim distribution of $10 million; (2) approving the Receiver's final determinations regarding unperfected or incomplete claims; and (3) overruling limited objections to certain claim determinations. Doc. 695. The Court granted this motion and denied untimely and meritless objections on March 15, 2023. Doc. 730. The first interim distribution of $10 million is complete and provided approximately 17.51% of the "Allowed Amounts" (see Doc. 439 at 10) of claims entitled to receive the distribution (as set forth in Exhibits 1 and 2 of the motion). For more information, please see the Receiver's status report on the first interim distribution. Doc. 747.

On February 28, 2024, the Receiver moved the Court to approve a second interim distribution of $9,000,000 to approved claimants, bringing the total recovery for claimants participating in both distributions to approximately 33.28% of their allowed amounts. Doc. 805. On April 8, 2024, the Court approved the second interim distribution. Doc. 810. Despite unnecessary obstacles created by Winters and the Helpers Group (see Doc. 811), the Receiver mailed distribution checks to claimants with approved claims on April 30, 2024. The second interim distribution is complete. Additional funds on hand will be retained for continued operation of the Receivership and potential exposure from ongoing litigation.

VI. The Next Ninety Days

The Consolidated Order requires this Interim Report to contain the Receiver's recommendations for a continuation or discontinuation of the Receivership. Doc. 177 ¶ 56.G. The Receiver recommends continuation of the Receivership because he still has litigation to prosecute, a claims process to complete, and funds to distribute. Other than efforts to stop the Helpers Group's continued fraud, interference with the Receivership, and violation of this Court's orders and the ATC Litigation, the work of Receiver is substantially complete.

CONCLUSION

Investors and other creditors of the Receivership Entities are encouraged to periodically check the Receiver's website (www.oasisreceivership.com) for current information concerning this Receivership. While the Receiver and his staff are available to respond to any inquiries, to minimize expenses, investors and other creditors are strongly encouraged to consult the Receiver's website before contacting the Receiver or his counsel. Should the website not answer the question, please reach out to the Receiver or his professionals. The Receiver continues to encourage individuals or attorneys representing investors who have information that might be helpful in securing further assets for the Receivership Estate to email Edwina Tate at Edwina@BurtonWWiandPA.com.

The Receiver can be contacted by phone at (727) 460-4679 or by email Burt@BurtonWWiandPA.com.

Dated this 31st day of July 2026.
