RECEIVER'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MOTION FOR ORDER AWARDING CONTEMPT FEES

Burton W. Wiand, the Court-appointed receiver over the assets of the above-captioned defendants and relief defendants (the “Receiver” and the “Receivership”), respectfully moves the Court for the entry of an order extending his deadline to file a motion for an order awarding fees in connection with recent contempt proceedings by seven days from October 5, 2026, to October 12, 2026. Specifically, the Court entered a Contempt Order after an evidentiary hearing on August 7, 2026. In relevant part, the Court found Michael DaCorta, Greg Melick, Jason McKee, and Brent Winters (collectively, “Respondents”) in civil contempt for violating the asset freeze and anti-harassment provisions in the Court’s Consolidated Receivership Order (Doc. 177) (the “Consolidated Order”) and also determined that “[t]he Receiver is entitled to recover his reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in prosecuting Respondents’ violations of the Consolidated Order.” Doc. 989. The Court directed the Receiver to file a motion for this award of fees and costs within 30 days. Id.

That motion is due on October 5, 2026, but the Receiver requests a short, seven-day extension until October 12, 2026, because the main attorney working on the motion was hospitalized due to a medical issue. In addition, the motion will contain new fees and costs incurred during the third quarter of 2026, and the Receiver requires additional time to meet and confer with the CFTC about those expenses. Under the Consolidated Order, the CFTC has 30 days to review fee applications, and while that amount of time is not necessary here, additional time is required to present the Court with the most accurate motion possible and the parties' respective positions. This motion is not being made for purposes of delay, and no party will be prejudiced.

WHEREFORE, the Receiver respectfully requests an extension of his deadline to file a motion for an order awarding fees in connection with recent contempt proceedings by seven days from October 5, 2026, to October 12, 2026.

LOCAL RULE 3.01(g) CERTIFICATION

Undersigned counsel for the Receiver has conferred with counsel for the CFTC and is authorized to represent to the Court that the CFTC does not oppose the relief requested in this motion. Defendant DaCorta also has no objection to the extension. The Receiver has not attempted to confer with the other Respondents, as they have never replied to any of his previous communications, and they were absent from the evidentiary hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
